15 April 2010

News/Education Editor

Dear Sir/Madam,

Press briefing on PolyU’s first summer programmes for gifted and secondary school students

The Hong Kong Polytechnic University (PolyU) is offering four summer programmes to 160 gifted and secondary four students who are nominated by the Hong Kong Academy for Gifted Education (HKAGE) and some 30 secondary schools. These programmes, which span over a period of two years, are designed to teach quality secondary students fundamental knowledge and skills in the disciplines under the new four-year undergraduate curriculum.

You and your representatives are cordially invited to attend and cover a press briefing with details as follows:

Date : 21 April 2010 (Wednesday)
Time : 3:30 – 4:30 p.m.
Venue : Room M1607, 16/F, Li Ka Shing Tower, PolyU campus
Speakers : * Professor Walter Yuen, Vice President (Academic Development), PolyU
          * Dr Stephen Tommis, Executive Director, HKAGE

The coordinators of the four programmes will also attend the briefing session to introduce the structure and content of their programmes.

If you have any queries, please contact the undersigned on 2766 5218 or Ms Regina Yu of my office on 2766 5103. Thank you.

Yours sincerely,

Wilfred Lai
Senior Manager, Communications and Public Affairs