Awards for outstanding alumni

The University recently presented its sixth "Outstanding Alumni Award" to eight alumni to pay tribute to their remarkable professional achievements and contributions to their alma mater and the community.

The awards were presented by Mr Stephen Ip Shu-kwan, the HKSAR's Secretary for Economic Development and Labour. The award presentation ceremony and dinner, held at Hotel InterContinental Hong Kong in April, was joined by 500 guests, comprising senior officials, University Court and Council members, friends and supporters from industries, alumni and staff members.

Launched in late 1996, this biennial alumni award scheme was jointly organized by PolyU and the Federation of PolyU Alumni Associations. It aims to honour outstanding graduates of PolyU and its forerunners, the Government Trade School, the Hong Kong Technical College and the Hong Kong Polytechnic. A total of 30 distinguished alumni in various professions have been honoured in the past award selections and they are fine testimony of PolyU's accomplishments in nurturing professional talents for the community.

Outstanding mainland entrepreneurs awarded Bauhinia Cup

Mr Li Gang (fifth from right), Deputy Director of Liaison Office of the Central People's Government in the HKSAR, and Prof. Cheng Siwei (fifth from left) attend the gala dinner for prize presentation as special guests.

The 14 winners of this year's coveted Bauhinia Cup Outstanding Entrepreneur Awards received their prizes presented by Prof. Cheng Siwei, Vice-Chairman of the Standing Committee of the National People's Congress, and University President Prof. Poon Chungkwong in mid-April. This event was staged as a major activity of the University's 70th Anniversary celebrations.

Organized for the fifth time, this activity aims to give public recognition to outstanding entrepreneurs from the private sector on the Chinese mainland. It also provides a valuable opportunity for entrepreneurs from Hong Kong and the mainland to exchange their experiences and explore further business opportunities.

The scope of businesses of the 14 mainland entrepreneurs covers information technology, pharmaceutical products, metals and machines, materials, electronics, commercial services, foods as well as construction. Among them, two are helmsmen of locally listed mainland enterprises.

Awardees of the scheme, including those of past years, have been invited to join the Bauhinia Cup Outstanding Entrepreneur Association, which was established in 2002 to serve as a network for entrepreneurs and help promote the continuous economic development of the country.

Since its launch in 1997, the Bauhinia Cup Awards scheme has honoured a total of 90 outstanding entrepreneurs from the Chinese mainland. Among the distinguished awardees are Dr Lu Quanqiu, Chairman of the Board of Wanxiang Group, and Mr Duang Yongji, Chairman of Stone Group Corporation.

A series of activities were held in Beijing and Hong Kong to provide awardees with opportunities to exchange entrepreneurial experiences.
