

Alumni Convention in Hangzhou

校友匯聚 杭州共度機遇之旅

More than 200 alumni and business leaders gathered in Hangzhou in November to join the PolyU 70th Anniversary Alumni Convention. It was the first joint-effort of the University and the Federation of PolyU Alumni Associations to provide a reunion opportunity for its alumni, and a platform for them to explore the opportunities and challenges presented by the phenomenal growth of the mainland in recent decades. Keynote speakers of the Convention included Dr Roy Chung Chi-ping, Vice Chairman of Techtronic Industries Co Ltd and Chairman of PolyU Court; and Mr Li Yue, Executive Director and Vice President of China Mobile Communications Corporation. They gave insightful presentations on the future economic development of the mainland and branding.

理大及理大校友會聯會早前於杭州舉辦以「全球化與中國的崛起：校友凝聚，機遇之旅」為題的高峰論壇。該活動是理大建校七十周年的重點慶祝項目，也是首次為凝聚各地校友而特別舉辦的論壇，吸引逾二百名校友及企業專才共聚一堂，分享經驗及促進合作。論壇邀得創科實業有限公司副主席及執行董事暨理大顧問委員會主席鍾志平博士，及中國移動通信集團副總經理李躍先生發表主題演講。多位享負盛名的業界代表亦應邀擔任嘉賓，於討論環節就「中國的崛起：打造強勢國際品牌」及「全球化市場所需要之領導才能」的議題發表演講，與一眾校友共度難忘的聯誼及探索機遇之旅。

FHKPUAA new officers elected

The new board of directors and officers of the Federation of The Hong Kong Polytechnic University Alumni Associations (FHKPUAA) has recently been elected at its annual general meeting. Prof. Kenneth Pang Tsan-wing of the Building and Real Estate Alumni Association, also former Commissioner of Rating and Valuation and University Fellow, will assume the presidency. Mr Johnny Fan Siu-Kay of the Building Association and Mr Alex Wong Chun-bong of the Accounting and Finance Graduates Association will serve as the First and Second Vice-President respectively. The inauguration ceremony will be held during the PolyU Alumni Homecoming Carnival on 9 March.

New overseas alumni association established

The University celebrated the inauguration of The Hong Kong Polytechnic University Association (Southern California) in Los Angeles, US last October. Being PolyU's seventh overseas association, it will unite PolyU graduates and former staff in Southern California and foster their links with the University.
