General Information on Terms and Conditions for Appointment of Academic Staff

Terms of Appointment

PolyU adopts a four-rank academic structure, namely, Assistant Professor, Associate Professor, Professor and Chair Professor with promotion exercises being conducted on a regular basis.

Assistant Professor

The initial appointment is normally a 3-year gratuity-bearing contract (contract terms), which is renewable for another 3 years subject to a review and mutual agreement. Conversion to regular terms (which is a continuous appointment similar to substantiation) is coupled with promotion to Associate Professor rank and is subject to a major review on performance conducted by the University normally towards the end of the second 3-year contract. Excellent performers may apply for fast track promotion and conversion to regular terms.

Associate Professor

Associate Professors will be offered a gratuity-bearing contract of normally 3 years or on regular terms of appointment. For those on contract terms, conversion to regular terms of appointment is subject to a major review on performance towards the end of the contract.

Professor

Professors are normally offered regular terms of appointment.

Chair Professor

Chair Professors are normally offered regular terms of appointment.
Salary

Commencing salary is highly competitive. The University will review staff members’ salary on a regular basis. Under the current Salary Review and Reward System, eligible staff members (with 6 months’ service preceding the effective date of salary adjustment) may be granted (i) General Adjustment (normally effective on 1 April of a year) and (ii) Merit-based Salary Adjustment (normally effective on 1 July of a year). Rates of salary adjustments will be determined by the University.

Special Allowance

Special allowance may be offered on an exceptional basis to an appointee based on special consideration of factors including market forces or individual merits. Special allowance is normally provided on a monthly basis for a defined period and is renewable subject to review. One-off lump sum payment may also be granted under warranted circumstances.

Housing Benefits

A non-accountable Housing Allowance without time limit will be offered to eligible appointees.

Salary Tax

Salary Tax in Hong Kong is chargeable on the smaller of the employee’s net chargeable income at progressive rates and the employee’s net total income at standard rate (15% for 2015/16). Details can be obtained at the website of the Inland Revenue Department http://www.ird.gov.hk/.

Assistance for Relocation to Hong Kong

Accommodation in Hong Kong

Interim accommodation at the University House in lieu of the housing allowance may be provided for eligible appointees for one academic year subject to availability.

First Appointment Passage and Baggage Allowance

An appointee (and eligible family members) who are residing outside Hong Kong for one year or more at the time of first appointment will be eligible for first appointment passage and baggage allowance.

Children’s Education in Hong Kong

An appointee may be given a special allowance exceptionally on children’s education to cover part of the cost of education for dependant children aged under 18 and receiving full-time education at international schools in Hong Kong.
Contract-end Gratuity and Mandatory Provident Fund (MPF)

Appointment on Contract Terms

An appointee on a gratuity-bearing contract will be a basic member of the University’s MPF scheme. Both the appointee and the University will make mandatory contributions to the scheme at the rate specified by relevant legislation (currently HK$1,500 per month from each party). Upon satisfactory completion of the contract, the appointee will receive a contract-end gratuity which, together with the total amount of mandatory contributions paid by the University to the MPF scheme, will be equivalent to 15% of the appointee’s total basic salary of the entire contract period.

Subject to certain conditions, a tax planning arrangement is available for handling the payment of gratuity by way of a special voluntary contribution to be made into the University’s MPF Scheme.

Appointment on Regular Terms

An appointee on regular terms will be a member of the University’s MPF scheme with contributions of 5% of monthly basic salary from the appointee and 15% of monthly basic salary from the University.

Medical and Dental Benefits

An appointee (and eligible family members) will be provided with a comprehensive coverage of both outpatient and inpatient medical benefits and dental service.

Staff Development

The University gives full support to academic staff to develop their career and enhance their research and teaching capabilities.

- Financial Support - for attending conferences, overseas visits, networking and other relevant activities with support for programme fees, air passages, subsistence allowance, etc.

- Sabbatical Leave - six months (or up to one year exceptionally) for every six years’ service.

- Leave for Professional Development outside Hong Kong - up to one month per year.

- Leave for Staff Development, Duty Visits and Conferences
Other Leave Provisions

- Annual Leave - 22 working days per year on first appointment; 26 working days per year on completion of 10 years’ service.

- Maternity Leave and Paternity Leave will be provided to eligible female appointee (up to ten weeks with full pay) and eligible male appointees (up to five working days with full pay).

- Sick Leave (full pay) - 3 days for each month of service during the first year and thereafter, 4 days for each month of service.

Retirement

The normal retirement age is 60. The retirement age may be re-determined beyond age 60 on appointment or after joining the University in accordance with the prevailing guidelines. Long serving retirees (and their spouses) can enjoy retirees’ medical benefits and dental service and access to the University’s facilities, including the library and sports facilities.

Group Personal Accident Insurance and Income Protection

The University has a group personal accident insurance policy in place for accidental death/permanent disablement during the employment for all full-time staff members (up to 24 months’ basic salary).

If the group personal accident insurance is not applicable, an ex-gratia payment of 12 months’ basic salary as income protection will be provided at the discretion of the University for dependants of staff members who pass away while in service.

Note: The general information provided in this document is for reference only and does not constitute an agreement of service for any individual appointment contract. The benefits provisions stated above are subject to prevailing rules and regulations of the University and may be subject to change by the University from time to time. Further enquiries may be directed to the Director of Human Resources of the University at hrstaff@polyu.edu.hk.

May 2015