

Doctor of Optometry (DOptom)

Developing Optometry Leaders

The programme is offered subject to approval

Commence in September 2024

-  School of Optometry is #1 in Asia and #15 globally*
-  Be competent orthokeratology practitioners
-  First Doctor of Optometry in Hong Kong
-  Specialised in selected optometry specialty areas

Programme Aims

-  To educate practising optometrists to become independent, competent, and evidence-based optometry specialists;
-  To educate practising optometrists to incorporate the latest scientific and technological advances into their optometric services;
-  To equip practising optometrists with the ability to conduct research and apply research findings in their chosen optometry specialty areas.

Entrance Requirements

-  A Master's degree in optometry, or equivalent; and
-  At least 3 years of full-time experience in optometry practice; and
-  Fulfil the English and General Requirements stipulated by The Hong Kong Polytechnic University.

Information Seminar Recap

-  26 March 2024

Curriculum

Subject Offerings

Your Future

-  Practise evidence-based myopia management
-  Deliver services of selected optometry specialty areas
-  Co-manage ocular and visual problems with other health professionals
-  Advise on policies to improve eye care services for the community

Application Deadline

29 May 2024

Enquiry

so.doptom@polyu.edu.hk

Programme Details

e-Admission

