A CAREER WHERE INNOVATION MEETS APPLICATION

The Hong Kong Polytechnic University (PolyU) is inviting applications for academic positions in the 2010/11 academic year.

THE INSTITUTION

- Founded in 1937, PolyU is the largest government-funded tertiary institution in Hong Kong, with a total student headcount of about 28,000 and some 4,000 employees. The consolidated expenditure budget of the University is in excess of HK$4 billion per year, of which some 50% is provided by the government. Regular research expenditure amounts to some HK$400 million, of which about HK$200 million is from internal funds.

- Committed to academic excellence in a professional context, PolyU aspires to become a world-class university with an emphasis on the application value of its programmes and research. Its vision is to become a “preferred university” offering “preferred programmes” with a view to developing “preferred graduates”.

- The University offers a wide range of undergraduate programmes, taught and research postgraduate programmes up to the doctoral level and some sub-degree programmes. It has 27 academic departments grouped under 6 faculties, 2 schools and 2 research institutes.

- PolyU operates 5 education and training centres (“outposts”) in the Chinese mainland with leading local universities and offers a number of degree and postgraduate programmes.

- It collaborates with hundreds of leading universities and corporatises internationally on research and education activities and is widely recognised as having the closest partnership with the business, industrial and professional sectors of the community.

- It is the only university in Hong Kong with an Institute for Enterprise, which has the specific mission of supporting the development of the business and industrial community and enhancing their competitiveness.
