- ASSA 2020 Annual Meeting
China Accounting and Finance Review (CAFR) Workshop

Theme: Global Development in Fintech and Its Implications to Accounting, Finance, and Law Research

The CAFR Research Workshop will be held on Jan 2, 2020 in San Diego, U.S.A during the ASSA 2020 Annual Meeting. The workshop will feature both plenary session and regular paper presentations. The main objective is to provide an interflow platform for scholars and experts interested in Fintech and related topics that are relevant to accounting, finance, and law. The workshop runs from 2 to 6pm, followed by a dinner at 7pm (reception starts at 6:30pm) reserved first for the workshop participant (by invitation).

Paper Submission

Please send an electronic version of your submission in PDF or Word format to the CAFR Editorial Office at af.cafr@polyu.edu.hk by Nov 15, 2019. Accepted papers will be invited to present at the workshop. If desired, will be given fast-track consideration for publication in the CAFR journal. Presenters will be sponsored for one-night hotel accommodation. Authors will be notified the review result by Nov 30, 2019 at the latest. Please note that all attendees to the ASSA Annual Meeting – including interviewers, interviewees, reception hosts, and session/panel speakers and presenters – must register for the conference. About CAFR

Established in 1999 by The Hong Kong Polytechnic University (PolyU) in collaboration with Tsinghua University, China Accounting and Finance Review (CAFR) is the first refereed journal of accounting and finance published in the Greater China Region. The Journal has recently undergone significant changes to reshape its academic focus and to attract a global editorial board (<https://af.polyu.edu.hk/research/our-journals/china-accounting-and-finance-review-cafr/>). Beginning in 2019, CAFR will publish papers on global issues as well as on China-specific topics.
