

DESCENT METHODS FOR EQUILIBRIUM PROBLEMS

OCA 2004

Abstract. In this paper, we consider equilibrium problems with differentiable bifunctions in a Banach space setting and investigate properties of gap functions for such problems. We suggest a derivative-free descent method and give conditions which provide strong convergence of the method.

Key Words. Equilibrium problems, differentiable bifunctions, gap function, feasible descent method.