Workshop on PDE Week-Kinetic and Related Topics

1-2 February 2024

Objective

The primary aim of the workshop is to bring together researchers on kinetic equations and related topics in Hong Kong and Japan to enhance the collaboration. This workshop aims to foster collaboration, exchange ideas, and promote advancements in these fields, with a particular focus on kinetic theories and related topics. We expect this workshop will provide an ideal platform for local students and researchers to access cutting-edge research and produce high-quality collaborations.
