

A seminar was held on 24th April 2006 evening at 7:30pm. The event was organized by The Department of Applied Mathematics of The Hong Kong Polytechnic University, inviting 2 speakers from the senior management of Shun Hing Group 信興集團 to give a talk on career as well as research opportunities at Shun Hing Group for our students and staff members. The talk was entitled “Shun Hing Group and its Supply Chain Management” 信興集團及其供應鏈管理.

The talk was mainly catered for students from MSc in Applied Mathematics for Science and Technology (Decision Science specialism), BSc in Statistics and Computing, HD in Mathematics, Statistics and Computing, and HD in Statistics and Computing for Business.

We are very honoured to have Mr. Lai Cheuk Man, Managing Director of Shun Hing Logistics, and Mr. Nelson Lai, General Manager of Human Resource of Shun Hing Group, to be the speakers for the evening.

The estimated total headcounts for the evenings was 70.

Overall, the event was very successful.
