

Experience Sharing Session on the Implementation of “Educational Programme on Stopping Domestic Violence” (EPSDV)

6-hour Intervention for Prevention of Intimate Partner Violence - Does It Work?

Rundown

Date : 11 January 2016 (Monday)
 Time : 14:00 ó 17:30
 Venue : GH Podium, Mary Ho Wan Wah Room(GH201), The Hong Kong Polytechnic University
 Moderator : Dr. Tam Kin Yuen Raymond
 Language : Cantonese supplemented with English

14:00 ó 14:15	Registration
14:15 ó 14:20	Welcome speech Mrs. Kong Kong Lai-chun, Assistant Principal Social Services Secretary Integrated Family Services, Po Leung Kuk
14:20 ó 14:40	An Overview and the Way Forward : The Educational Programme on Stopping Domestic Violence Mr. Ringo Lam Ka-kui , Social Work Officer (BIP), Social Welfare Department
14:40 ó 15:10	Sharing Session (I) The Application of Gender Perspectives in Working with Domestic Violence Perpetrators Mr. Raco Cheng Tak-wah, Service Development Officer, Po Leung Kuk
15:10 ó 15:40	Research Findings (I) An Evaluation Study on “Po Leung Kuk Power Up 360 Programme” Dr.Chan Kam-wah, Associate Professor(retired) & Dr.Raymond Tam Kin-yuen,Teaching Fellow The Hong Kong Polytechnic University
15:40 ó 15:55	Break
15:55 ó 16:25	Sharing Session (II) How does EPSDV lead to a positive interaction in intimate partner relationship Mr Lau Pit Mo, Assistant Supervisor I & Ms Mabel Wong Mei-Po, Team Leader Tung Wah Group of Hospitals
16:25 ó 16:55	Research Findings (II) : Understanding women’s use of force from their stories Dr. Anna Choi Wai-man, Assistant Professor, The University of Hong Kong
16:55 ó 17:10	Video presentation : Sharing of EPSDV participants
17:10 ó 17:30	Q&A