B4.1 Faculty Boards

學院院務委員會

Terms of Reference

1. Generally, to co-ordinate and promote the work of the Faculty.
2. To consider, in connection with the triennial Planning Exercise, departmental proposals in respect of the programme plan for each triennium^{*} and to prepare, co-ordinate and submit the overall Faculty proposal to the Academic Planning and Regulations Committee.
[^{*}A triennium also covers the roll-over years if any.]
3. To consider any proposals that may be put forward by departments for amendment of their approved academic programmes in between triennial submissions.
4. To receive and consider initial programme proposals and submit the same, if approved, to the Academic Planning and Regulations Committee.
5. To be responsible for the quality of academic programmes leading to PolyU awards offered by the Faculty and to implement institutional quality assurance policies and procedures as approved by Senate.
6. To receive and consider validation reports, and to submit Faculty recommendations to Senate.
7. To receive and consider the Annual Programme Review documentation from Departments in the Faculty and to periodically review and advise on quality assurance matters within the Faculty.
8. To submit Faculty Report on Departmental Review exercises of the Faculty to the Academic Quality Assurance Committee.
9. To provide a forum to stimulate academic and research development and initiatives, particularly those involving innovation and inter-departmental collaboration, both within and between Faculties.
10. To approve, on behalf of Senate, entrance requirements for individual programmes within the Faculty, in accordance with the University entrance requirements approved by Senate.
11. In accordance with the general University admission regulations, to be responsible for overseeing admission matters
12. To be responsible, on behalf of Senate, for the examination and assessment of students in the Faculty.
13. To confirm examination and assessment results for all taught programmes offered by the Faculty^{*}.
14. To examine and approve academic awards for all taught programmes offered by the Faculty^{*}.
15. To receive and review, on a regular basis, the minutes of Departmental Advisory Committees.

^{*} Where necessary, the Board Chairman can identify an item of business as ‘reserved business’, and requires the student members to withdraw. Examination and assessment results will usually be regarded as ‘reserved business’.

16. To receive and review reports submitted by Departmental Academic Advisors (DAA) and Overseas Academic Advisors (OAA), if any, departmental responses to the DAA and OAA reports.
17. To submit an annual report to Senate covering the Faculty Board's activities for the previous 12 months from 1st July to 30th June.
