

Appendix

Recipients of the PolyU Faculty of Business “Outstanding Alumni Award” and “Outstanding Young Alumni Award”

Outstanding Alumni Award

Ms Winnie CHIU Wai Yin
Master of Business Administration (1994)

Ms Chiu is the Deputy Commissioner of Police, Management. She is the first female deputy police commissioner in Hong Kong.

Ms Chiu joined the Hong Kong Police Force as an Inspector in 1983. She has served in a wide spectrum of posts encompassing criminal intelligence, narcotics, international liaison, personnel, training, divisional, district and regional command as well as operations and management policy and support. She won the Hong Kong Police Medal for Meritorious Service in 2010 and the Hong Kong Police Medal for Distinguished Service in 2017.

Dr Stella KWAN Mun Yee
Doctor of Business Administration (2000)

Dr Kwan has been Managing Director of Ngong Ping 360 Limited since September 2014. Under her leadership, the company has been recognized three times as one of the 10 most amazing cable car experiences in the world. She has held senior management positions with major international corporations including the MTR Corporation, Jardine Matheson and Swire Pacific, and has helped to establish brands and businesses such as IKEA, Marathon Sports, Dymocks Booksellers and MTR Malls.

Dr Kwan is currently Chair of the VTC’s Retail Trade Training Board, Member of the VTC’s Audit Committee, a Founding Director and Chair of the Tourism Committee of the Lantau Development Alliance, a Committee Member of the Retail and Tourism Committee of the Hong Kong General Chamber of Commerce and an Executive Committee Member of the Hong Kong Advertisers Association.

She was recently named an Honorary Fellow of the VTC and Fellow of the Hong Kong Institute of Marketing.

Mr Leo LEE Chi Ming
Higher Diploma in Accountancy (1976)

Mr Lee is currently Global Deputy President of ACCA (the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants) and Managing Partner of Benington Capital Limited. He had been the Director of Finance and Administration, Director of Corporate Planning, and Director of Licensing of the Securities and Futures Commission. In his position as head of licensing, Lee was instrumental in revamping the licensing regime for securities and futures intermediaries in Hong Kong.

Mr Lee served on the examination committees of the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited and Hong Kong Securities Institute. He was also advisor to PolyU's School of Accounting and Finance and PolyU's College of Professional and Continuing Education.

Dr Miranda LOU Lai Wah
Doctor of Business Administration (2009)

Dr Lou is Executive Vice President of PolyU. She has over 20 years of strategic, business and functional management experience gained through working with the Independent Commission Against Corruption (ICAC), The Wharf (Holdings) Limited, and Orient Overseas Container Line Limited (OOCL Group).

Dr Lou is currently member of the Hong Kong Housing Authority, panel member of the Insurance Appeals Tribunal and member of the Logistics Management Committee of The Hong Kong Management Association. She has also served as committee/board member of various government advisory committees and industry associations, including the Logistics Industry Training Advisory Committee, the Vocational Training Council, the Hong Kong R&D Centre for Logistics and Supply Chain Management Enabling Technologies, the Hong Kong Liner Shipping Association and the Hong Kong General Chamber of Commerce.

Mr WANG Chunlin

Master of Science in International Shipping and Transport
Logistics (2003)

Mr Wang is Founder and Chairman of China League International (Group) Ltd. He is also senior advisor, consultant and INED (Independent Non-Executive Director) to quite a number of internationally renowned companies based in China, Hong Kong, Japan and Norway. He has profound knowledge and experience in the main shipping sectors of dry bulk, container and tanker in relation to ship chartering, operation, managing and leasing as well as in port investment and operation.

Mr Wang is a member of Advisory Committee of PolyU FB.

Outstanding Young Alumni Award

Miss Annie AU Wing Chi

Bachelor of Business Administration (Honours) in Management (2014)

Miss Au is presently the No. 1 woman squash player in Hong Kong and No. 10 woman player in the world. She was the first Hong Kong player to become the champion in Asian Championships in 2013.

She helps promote squash by sharing her story through the media and at sports events. She makes donations to charities, sponsors the development of visually impaired children and volunteers to visit the needy. She also supports the development of students and alumni activities.

Mr Kino LAW

Bachelor of Business Administration (Honours) in Marketing (2010)

Mr Law is the Chief Executive Officer of K&K Property Holdings Limited, established in 2013. He is an active player in property development as well as land acquisitions, project design and development, sales and marketing of various residential projects in Hong Kong.

He was on the Forbes 30 Under 30 Asia List in 2016. He is a believer of “giving back” and set up K&K Charity in 2015, aiming to make contributions to youth welfares and education.

Mr Henry NGAI Wai Tung

Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Accountancy (2002)

Mr Ngai is Tax Partner of KPMG and leader of R&D tax practice for the eastern and central region of KPMG China. Apart from helping foreign enterprises to manage their investment in China, he developed a comprehensive programme which has already been used for training 1,000 tax professionals.

He is actively involved in charitable work. He received the Chairman’s Award from KPMG China in recognition of his contribution to the community. He serves as advisor to Shanghai United Foundation providing support for the planning and organization of a number of charitable activities.