Teaching/Learning Methodology (Note 3)	Lectures This subject will be mainly taught in the lecture format with visual examples and video-based images. In each lecture, 15 minutes will be allocated for question and answer session. Such an interactive environment will allow participating students to reflect in real time upon some of the material, bringing up their questions which require further explanation, as well as giving valuable feedback to the lecturer. Tutorials Students are required to report and reflect on the reading materials of 200 pages to fulfill the “English Reading” requirement. They will be asked to discuss in teams the assigned material in each tutorial, and then present to the other teams their interpretation and questions for that piece of reading. The basic approach will be peer teaching in which each study team in turn will facilitate discussion of the assigned reading through a series of questions posed to the other teams. Exhibition Visit Students are required to make a 3-hour visit to an exhibition so that they are able to have direct viewing experience of real artworks. They are required to write an exhibition review of 1000 words that will be due in week 6. Individual Study Students will be expected to complete the remainder of the 93 hours required for each credit hour earned individually. Most of such effort should be devoted to reading, doing research and writing which is designed to give the student an essential training of empowerment in learning to study independently and effectively. Assessment Feedback Grading in this subject is based entirely on continuous assessment components, including an exhibition review, a visual quiz, an essay and participation in tutorial discussions of assigned readings.
Assessment Methods in Alignment with Intended Learning Outcomes (Note 4)	Assessment for this subject will be 100% coursework. They are composed of an exhibition review, a visual quiz, an essay and attendance. Details as followed: Mid-term Exhibition Review (20%): Students have to participate in an exhibition visit. They are required to write an exhibition review in 1000 words which will be due in week 6. Visual Quiz (30%): A visual quiz will be held in week 13. It will be carried out in the form of a visual analysis of three pairs of artwork. Students will be asked to compare and contrast the artworks in terms of their form, content, context as well as other aspects they consider relevant and significant. Essay (40%): Students are required to submit a research essay of 2500 words in English to fulfill the “English Writing” requirement, one week after the last lecture. This is the most important piece of coursework for this subject. It examines and develops student’s written presentation skills. 10% of this writing assessment will be conducted by ELC.

	Students are free to select any topic related to Chinese art and design. They can discuss with me if they have any problems in devising a topic. Their analysis should reflect the depth of their research and provide a clear and coherent paper in an analytical and argumentative manner with proper citation and references. In order to pass this subject, students must pass the writing component, i.e., attain a minimum grade “D” in the writing component. Participation (10%): Attendance and participation in discussion even debate are considered very important. It is crucial that students come to all classes, and also turn up on time. A roll of attendance will be kept and certain ground rules for class participation will be set.
