

Seminar on “Smart Infrastructure Systems – A Practical Platform for Continuous Network-Wide Health Monitoring of Transportation Infrastructures”

On 27 May 2019 (Monday), Prof. Ming L. WANG, Distinguished Professor, Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering and Director, VOTERS Sensors Systems at Northeastern University in Boston, USA, gave a seminar on “Smart Infrastructure Systems – A Practical Platform for Continuous Network-Wide Health Monitoring of Transportation Infrastructures” at the invitation of Prof. Y. Q. Ni, Professor of CEE. The seminar attracted over 60 participants.

Prof. Ming L. WANG was giving the presentation

Prof. William H. K. LAM, Chair Professor and Head of CEE (3rd of right) presented the Certificate of Appreciation to the distinguished speaker, Prof. Ming L. WANG (middle)