

Welcome CEE freshmen !

CEE extended its warmest welcome to over 200 freshmen participating in the orientation programme on 29 August 2017. Prof. William H.K. Lam, Head of CEE, kicked off the event by introducing the department, its facilities and recent achievements. The CEE Departmental Health and Safety Officer, Dr Leng Zhen, then gave a brief talk on the General Safety and Health Induction to our freshmen.

Other representatives from Health, Safety and Environmental Office, Office of General University Requirements and Centre of Student Advancement and Resources also highlighted their services to help students adapt to university life.
