

Successful Arts Festival 'China Extravaganza' concludes

The first-ever Arts Festival, themed 'China Extravaganza' attracted thousands of staff, students and members of the public and provided them with an unforgettable experience. Organised by Culture Promotion Committee and Faculty of Communication, the Festival presented more than 20 different activities and performances displaying various aspects of the Chinese culture from 5 March to 4 April on PolyU campus.

Millennium Talk Series and Literary Arts Talk Series

Popular song writer
Mr James J S Wong

Poet, translator
and critic Prof. Yu
Kwang-chung

Ethnic music guru
Mr Dong Hua-qiang

Chinese Films Series

Director Ms Mabel Cheung and script-writer Mr Alex Law shared their production experience with the audience after the screening of Beijing Rocks.

Exhibitions

Chinese Opera Appreciation

PolyU staff showed their talents in Cantonese Opera singing.

A dazzling performance by renowned Cantonese Opera artists Mr Leung Hon-wai (right) and Ms Wan Fei-yin (left).

Harvard scholar
Prof. Lee Ou-fan

The Finale

Weiqi Match

A variety show by talented PolyU students and staff. The audience was also impressed by a showcase of fascinating costumes of Chinese ethnic groups.

