Provided that if the duration of such performance of drama/dance/concert/variety show etc. extends beyond 2300 hours but does not exceed 2400 hours, the Hirer shall pay to the University additional venue hire charges under the Second Schedule.
- (b) Without prejudice to paragraph (a) of this Clause, the University reserves the following rights :-
  - (1) The right of the University or its authorised agent to display advertisements or notices of any type within the Auditorium;
  - (2) The right at any time to make live or taped announcements on the public address system concerning house rules, or for crowd control or emergency purposes as the Manager may consider necessary;
  - (3) The exclusive right of the University or its catering contractor to sell all food, beverages and drinks whatsoever;
  - (4) Subject to Clause 34 below, the exclusive right of the University or its authorised agent to sell or distribute all souvenirs, novelties or other items whatsoever;
  - (5) The right to block out such times of the day during the term of Hire and designate the same as rest period ("Rest Period") so that no activities of the Hirer may be carried out during such period but the Auditorium will be released to the University for its activities or such other activities which the University authorises. The Rest Period shall be confirmed by the University in Confirmed Booking Letter or otherwise.
  - (6) The right to take photographs, video and/or sound recording of the Event or the Function for the use of the University in educational teaching purpose or the Auditorium's record and marketing.

5. Categories of Charges

The Hirer shall pay to the University:-

- (a) For each session of a Confirmed Booking and Confirmed Additional Booking, if any, the venue hire charge at the rates specified in the Second Schedule for the Auditorium together with the venue hire charge and other miscellaneous charges for any extension hours or overnight use specified in the Confirmed Booking Letter and Confirmed Additional Booking Letter, if any;
- (b) Any additional venue hire charge and other miscellaneous charges at the rates specified in the Second Schedule in respect of any extension or overnight use in excess of the period of the Confirmed Booking and Confirmed Additional Booking, if any, during which the Auditorium is occupied by the Hirer, his servants, agents, sponsors, co-presenters or any person admitted to the Auditorium.

- (c) The cost of any personnel, stage equipment, or seating or any other services provided by the University at the rates specified in the Second Schedule or at such other rates, if any, as the University at its absolute discretion may prescribe at any time and from time to time. Provided that for the provision of personnel, the number provided shall be such as in the opinion of the Manager is necessary and adequate to service the Event which said opinion shall be conclusive and not subject to challenge by the Hirer;
- (d) The cost of labour incurred in setting up the Auditorium for any particular use or uses by the Hirer during the Event and the cost, if any of restoration to its original state including, but not limited to, placing and removing seats, laying and dismantling wooden floor, installing and removing the stage at such rates as the University at its absolute discretion may prescribe at any time and from time to time;

17. Floor Loading

The Hirer shall not cause, suffer or permit the floor loading in the Auditorium or any part of any thereof to exceed the respective maximum floor loading which the Manager in his absolute discretion may see fit to approve or prescribe. The Hirer shall further distribute the weight of any heavy structure or equipment over as large an area as possible by the use of battens or other suitable means authorised by the Manager.

18. Counterweight Flying Bars Loading

The Hirer shall not cause, suffer or permit the counterweight flying bars loading in the Auditorium or any part thereof to exceed the respective maximum bar loading which the Manager in his absolute discretion may see fit to approve or prescribe. The Hirer shall further distribute the weight of any heavy structure or equipment over to other available bars or other suitable means authorised by the Manager.

19. Decorations and Alterations

- (a) Except with the written permission of the Manager and subject to such conditions as he may impose and payment of any miscellaneous charges stipulated in the Second Schedule, no person shall affix or display advertisement, bill, placard, notice, banner or any other similar decoration to or upon any part of the building, wall, fence, barrier, railing, post or seat or any other structure in or forming part of the Auditorium.
- (b) The Hirer shall seek the Manager's permission before putting up any kind of decoration in the Auditorium and shall remove such decoration upon or before the expiry or sooner termination of the hiring.
- (c) No floral decoration shall be placed in any part of a gangway or any carpeted area of the Auditorium without the prior consent of the Manager. All floral decorations shall be removed after 3 days unless in the Manager's opinion they are still in presentable conditions, failing which the Manager shall have the right, at the Hirer's expense, to remove and dispose of the floral decoration as the Manager considers fit without any liability to the Hirer and the Hirer shall pay the Manager the costs of such removal and/or disposal.
- (d) Any alteration to the facilities in the Auditorium is subject to the approval of the Manager and the Hirer shall pay all expenses connected with any such installation, alteration, dismantling and restoration of the facilities. Restoration to normal conditions to the satisfaction of the Manager must be completed on or before the expiry or sooner termination of the hiring.

20. Personnel, Equipment and Services

- (a) The Hirer shall not, without the prior written permission of the Manager, use any personnel, stage equipment, seating or other services whatsoever other than those provided by the University or its contractor, and shall comply in all respects with any conditions with regard thereto which may be imposed by the Manager.
- (b) Provision of all personnel, stage equipment, seating and other services shall be at the absolute discretion of the University.
- (c) The Hirer shall submit to the Manager for approval not less than 30 days before the first day of the Confirmed Booking or, if any, Confirmed Additional Booking, whichever is the earlier, full and accurate details of the personnel, equipment, seating and services that the University is requested to provide. The University shall have the right to refuse to consider any request for or requirement of personnel, equipment, seating or services in respect of which such notice is not given.

- (d) Any request for or requirement of personnel, equipment, seating or services may, with the approval of the Manager, be altered at any time save and except within the 2-week period prior to the Event when they cannot be altered.
- (e) Notwithstanding anything contained herein, the University and their servants and agents shall not in any circumstances whatsoever be liable for any failure to provide any personnel, equipment, seating or services (including but not limited to air-conditioning, lighting, stage equipment, sound and projection systems in the Auditorium), whether the subject of a charge or not, or any failure, breakdown or other interruption whatsoever of such personnel, equipment, seating or services, or any acts or omission of any person or persons with respect to such personnel, equipment, seating or services on account of strikes, labour disputes, accident or any causes whatsoever beyond the control of the University.

21. University Property

- (a) The Hirer shall not, except with the prior written permission of the Manager and subject to all such conditions as the Manager in his discretion may see fit to impose, use or handle or operate or permit any person other than the Manager or a person duly authorised by him to use, handle or operate the scenery hoist, stage facilities, stage lighting appliances, lighting/sound control switch-boards and any other equipment or property of the University.
- (b) The Hirer shall take good care of all equipment or property of the University issued to or hired by him. The Hirer shall be responsible for the return of such equipment or property to the University in a thoroughly clean, wholesome and proper working condition to the satisfaction of the Manager.
- (c) Should any University equipment or property issued to or hired by the Hirer be lost, damaged, destroyed, stolen, removed during the period of hire, the Hirer shall pay to the University on demand for the same at total original cost or the cost of reinstating or replacing any part of such equipment or property or any part thereof, whichever is the higher.
- (d) The Hirer shall on demand pay to the University all costs incurred by it in repairing, reinstating or otherwise making good any defect or damage which may have been caused by the Hirer, or any of his agents, servants or invitees to the Auditorium or any part thereof (including but not limited to the flying system) or any fixtures or fittings therein or in replacing any such fixtures or fitting. The Hirer shall further compensate the University for any loss, damage or liability whatsoever which may be suffered by the University as a result of any such defect or damage.

22. Electrical Apparatus and Fittings

The Hirer shall not, without the prior permission of the Manager, permit any electrical apparatus or fittings to be attached to or used in conjunction with existing electrical fitting in the Auditorium.

23. Affixing to fixture, fitting or furniture

The Hirer shall not, without the permission of the Manager, affix any glue, scotch-tape, gumpaper, nails, spikes, tacks or any other things to any plaster wall or floor or on any fixture, fitting or piece of furniture in any part of the Auditorium.

24. Additional Furniture, Equipment

The Hirer shall not, without the prior permission of the Manager, bring into the Auditorium any additional furniture or equipment and shall comply in all respects with any conditions with regard thereto which may be imposed by the Manager at all time.

25. Musical Instruments

The Hirer shall not, without the permission of the Manager, permit any person to have access to or play upon any musical instruments provided by the University.

26. Safety Film

The Hirer shall not use film other than "safety" film in any cinematographer or other instrument for the exhibition of moving pictures and shall not use any means of lighting other than electric light.

27. Naked Flame, Fireworks, Pyrotechnics, Laser and Special Stage Effects

The Hirer shall not, except with the prior written permission of the Manager and subject to all such conditions as the Manager in his discretion may see fit to impose, use naked flame, fireworks, pyrotechnics, laser or any chemicals for producing smoke or any special stage effects.

28. Removal of dangerous property, inflammable substance

The Manager may order the Hirer to remove from the Auditorium anything brought in by the Hirer, his servants or agents which in the opinion of the Manager is dangerous or liable to cause nuisance or obstruction and the Hirer shall thereupon immediately remove such thing. In any event, the Manager shall have the right, at the Hirer's expense, to remove and dispose of the same as the Manager considers fit without any liability to the Hirer and the Hirer shall pay the Manager the costs of such removal and/or disposal.

29. Order and Safety of Spectators

The Hirer and the performing artists shall not carry out any activities which may encourage the audience to leave their seats or do anything which may cause disorder or in any way put the safety of the audience at risk during the Function.

30. Gangway and Exits

The Hirer shall keep all corridors, aisles, passages, entrances and exits clear and free from obstruction at all times.

31. Smoking

The Hirer shall not smoke or suffer or permit smoking within the Auditorium without the prior permission of the Manager.

32. Noise

The Hirer shall not permit any noise, particularly noise arising from any construction work related to the Event or the operation of sound equipment, that may cause annoyance to the University property and its neighbourhood environment. The Hirer shall in all respects comply with the provisions of any enactment and regulations or by-laws, in respect of noise level including but not limited to Section 13 of the Summary Offences Ordinance and shall keep the University indemnified against all claims, demands, actions, proceedings, penalties and liability of every kind for breach of any such enactment, regulations, by-laws or rules.

33. Access to Designated Restricted Areas

The Hirer and Hirer's servant and agent shall not enter the lighting/sound control rooms, projection rooms, fly galleries, light bridges and any other restricted areas designated by the Manager from time to time unless prior permission or consent of the Manager has been obtained and shall comply with all regulations set or prescribed by the Manager from time to time in respect of such areas.

34. Identification of Hirer's Staff

- (a) Every servant and agent of the Hirer shall wear or carry for inspection by the Manager a clear identification badge or card, a specimen of which shall be deposited by the Hirer with the Manager before the first day of the Period of Hire. The number of staff remaining inside the Auditorium during a performance shall not exceed the number approved by the Manager.
- (b) The Hirer shall ensure that at least one person is available at the backstage of the Auditorium during all times that the Hirer's servants and agents are in the Auditorium in order to assist the Manager to prevent unauthorised persons being present at the backstage area.

35. Souvenirs, Gifts, Raffles and Catering Services

- (a) (1) Save and except as approved by the Manager, the Hirer shall not sell or otherwise howsoever cause, permit or suffer to be sold at the Auditorium or any part thereof or in the vicinity of the same any souvenirs, novelties or other items whatsoever other than through the University or its authorised agent.
- (2) Any approval to sell any such items which may be given by the Manager shall be subject to the conditions that :-
  - (i) The Hirer shall not sell or cause, permit or suffer to be sold any items other than those as approved by the Manager;
  - (ii) The Hirer shall not sell or cause, permit or suffer to be sold any such items other than from sites designated by the Manager; and
  - (iii) The Hirer shall pay the charges specified in the Second Schedule for the use of the designated sites; and such other conditions as the Manager in his absolute discretion may see fit to impose.
- (3) Any approval so given may be withdrawn by the Manager at any time and without notice in the event of any breach or non-observance of any of the said conditions.
- (b) The Hirer shall not, without the prior consent of the Manager in writing, distribute or permit food, drinks or gifts of any kind to be distributed free of charge to any member of an audience or member of the public in the Auditorium or hold a raffle on lucky draw. Such consent may be withdrawn by the Manager if there is any breach or non-observance of the conditions prescribed by the Manager therefor.
- (c) (1) All catering services in the Auditorium shall be provided by such caterers as may be designated or approved by the University.
- (2) The Hirer shall not, without the prior consent of the Manager in writing, provide any catering services to any person in the Auditorium. Such consent may be withdrawn by the Manager if there is any breach or non-observance of the conditions prescribed by the Manager therefor.

36. Programme

- (a) The Hirer shall forward to the Manager for approval and retention of 10 copies each of any programme, poster or other publicity material whatsoever to be sold or distributed by the Hirer.
- (b) No programme, poster or any other publicity material whatsoever shall be sold or distributed unless it has been approved by the Manager, and the Hirer shall pay an additional charge to the Manager specified in the Second Schedule.
- (c) All Events and Functions conducted or taking place in the Auditorium before an audience shall carry an acknowledgement for the Manager's staff. The size and position of the said acknowledgement shall be agreed between the Manager and the Hirer.

37. Photography, Transmission, Filming and Broadcasting

- (a) Except with the prior permission of the Manager, the Hirer shall not cause, suffer or permit any photography, transmission, filming, sound or video recording, telecasting or broadcasting or any means of re-production of any part of the Event, or the Function, to be undertaken within the Auditorium.
- (b) Without prejudice to paragraph (a) of this Clause and subject to the payment of any miscellaneous charges specified in the Second Schedule, the University may grant to the Hirer the right to film, make sound or video recordings, and to telecast and broadcast during the Period of Hire.

38. Admission of Persons, Animals and Vehicles

- (a) No person shall be admitted to a performance without an admission ticket except with the permission of the Manager.
- (b) Admission to the Auditorium shall be subject to the control and direction of the Manager who may, in his absolute discretion, prohibit or delay the admission of any persons, at any time, order any person to leave the Auditorium if such person contravenes these Terms and Conditions or behaves in a noisy, disorderly or objectionable manner.
- (c) Except with the permission of the Manager, children under six years of age will not be permitted into the Auditorium to view the Function or during the Function unless the Function is specially for children.
- (d) No child under six years of age will be admitted into the Auditorium at any time for any Functions unless accompanied by an adult.
- (e) Except with the permission of the Manager, no person shall introduce any animal or vehicle into the Auditorium.

39. Latecomers

Latecomers will not be admitted into the hired venue during the Function and or to view the Function save in the case of a suitable break during the Function when no action or performance of whatsoever nature is taking place on the stage of the Auditorium and which break must have been notified in writing by the Hirer to the Manager 2 hours prior to the Function.

40. Right of Access of Manager

The Manager, or persons duly authorised by him, shall have the right at all times to enter into the hired venue, whether during the Function or the Event or not, free of any charges or fees to the Hirer, his sponsors or co-sponsors, in the performance of his or their duties and/or to ensure compliance by the Hirer of any rules or regulations set or prescribed by the Manager from time to time and these Terms and Conditions.

41. Ticketing for Free Admission Events

The following provisions shall apply to all free admission Events:

- (a) The Hirer shall present to the Manager for approval the layout of admission tickets and a seating plan identifying all available seats.
- (b) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (a) above, the Manager reserves the right not to approve a seating plan with seats from which the view of the performing area may be impaired or which are in close proximity to the sound equipment.
- (c) Save and except with the prior permission of the Manager, the Hirer shall only distribute or permit or suffer to be distributed admission tickets in accordance with the layout of admission tickets and seating plan as approved in paragraph (a) above.
- (d) If the University in its absolute discretion shall so see fit, the University may at the request of the Hirer issue and distribute admission tickets on the Hirer's behalf upon and subject to such terms and conditions and the payment of such charges as may be agreed between the Hirer and the University. In any other case, the Hirer shall supply all admission tickets to any Function and shall by himself take all such steps as may be necessary to distribute the same.

- (e) There shall be stated on every admission ticket :-
  - (1) the name of the Hirer and the organisation presenting the Event;
  - (2) the place of the Event with the words emphasized for clarity;
  - (3) the name, date and time of the Function;
  - (4) the first-come-first-served rule;
  - (5) that the ticket will only admit one person; and
  - (6) the serial number of the ticket;
- (f) Unless otherwise authorised by the Manager in writing, the following regulations shall also be printed on every admission ticket :-
  - (1) late-comers will not be admitted until a suitable break in the performance;
  - (2) sound and video recordings are prohibited inside the Auditorium;
  - (3) eating, drinking and smoking are prohibited in the Auditorium; and
  - (4) holder of the valid-for-the-day ticket will be entitled to the University privileged parking rate at $15 per hour from 1800-0100 hours on weekdays, 0800-0100 on Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays upon presentation of this ticket to the shroff office. Beyond the specified hours, normal parking rate at $40 per hour will be applied.
- (g) Unless otherwise authorised by the Manager in writing, every admission ticket shall contain a 30mm x 15mm box space with the row and seat number inserted therein.

42. Ticketing for Paid Admission Events

The following provision shall apply to all Events other than free admission Events :-

- (a) The Hirer shall present to the Manager for approval a ticket price scale and a seating plan identifying all available seats and specifying prices and identifying those seats, if any, for which complimentary tickets are to be issued.
- (b) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph(a) above, the Manager reserves the right not to approve a seating plan with seats from which the view of the performing area may be impaired or which are in close proximity to the sound equipment or the price zoning as considered undesirable by the Manager.
- (c) No changes shall be made to the approved ticket price scale and seating plan save and except with the prior written permission of the Manager.
- (d) All admission tickets whatsoever including but not limited to complimentary tickets, discount tickets, box tickets and student tickets shall only be sold or issued, as the case may be, in strict compliance to all such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the University at any time and from time to time.
- (e) The Hirer shall, however, by himself take all such steps and make all such arrangements as may be necessary to comply with the provisions of the Entertainments Tax Ordinance and the Entertainments Duty Regulations, Cap.110.
- (f)
  - (1) Save and except with the written permission of the Manager, in respect of any one Function the total number of all complimentary tickets to be issued for the Function shall not exceed 100 or 10% of the total number of seats as shown in the approved seating plan whichever is the less.
  - (2) For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby expressly agreed and declared that the Manager shall be at liberty to grant or refuse any of the permission more particularly referred to in sub-paragraph(1) above as he in his absolute discretion may see fit and that any permission so granted shall be subject to such payment and such other conditions as the Manager in his absolute discretion may see fit to impose.
- (g) There shall be stated on every admission ticket :-
  - (1) the name of the Hirer and the organisation presenting the Event;
  - (2) the place of the Event with the words emphasized for clarity;
  - (3) the name, date and time of the Function;
  - (4) that the ticket will only admit one person; and
  - (5) the serial number of the ticket;
- (h) Unless otherwise authorised by the Manager in writing, the following regulations shall also be printed on every admission ticket :-
  - (1) late-comers will not be admitted until a suitable break in the Function;
  - (2) sound and video recordings are prohibited inside the Auditorium;
  - (3) eating, drinking and smoking are prohibited in the Auditorium; and
  - (4) holder of the valid-for-the-day ticket will be entitled to the University privileged parking rate at $15 per hour from 1800-0100 hours on weekdays, 0800-0100 on Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays upon presentation of this ticket to the shroff office. Beyond the specified hours, normal parking rate at $40 per hour will be applied.
- (i) Unless otherwise authorised by the Manager in writing, every admission ticket shall contain a 30mm x 15mm box space with the row and seat number inserted therein.
- (j) If the University should so require, the Hirer shall within such time as the University may stipulate present to the University a certified statement prepared by a firm of certified public accountants whose name appears in the list current at that time published pursuant to Section 32(1)(b) of the Professional Accountants Ordinance, Chapter 50, showing the gross ticket proceeds, the details of tickets sold for each price category and complimentary tickets issued for each Function.

43. Closure of the Auditorium

- (a) The Manager may at any time, at his absolute discretion, close the Auditorium, and by notice to the Hirer, cancel a Confirmed Booking and Confirmed Additional Booking if any, and on such closure or cancellation, any monies paid by the Hirer by way of hire charges shall be returned to the Hirer.
- (b) In the circumstances stated in paragraph (a) of this clause, the Manager shall not be liable for any loss or damage whatsoever suffered by the Hirer, to include but not limited to any consequential loss of profit or income and/or damage suffered due to claims made by third parties against the Hirer arising out of such closure and/or cancellation, if:-
  - (1) the cause of the closure or cancellation is due to an emergency or circumstance beyond the control of the Manager which are deemed to include, but not limited to the following:-
    - (i) damage or destruction to the Auditorium or of any part thereof which the Manager considers in his sole opinion that it would be dangerous to any person, entering and remaining in the Auditorium;
    - (ii) flooding in the Auditorium or any part thereof or the vicinity or neighbourhood around the Auditorium; and
    - (iii) the suspension of electricity to the Auditorium,

OR

- (2) such cancellation relates to any hire of the use of any wall or external wall of the Auditorium for the purpose of displaying any banner, poster, advertisement or board, and in the event of such cancellation, the Hirer shall immediately upon the date of receipt of the notice of cancellation, or within the time specified in such notice, at the Hirer's cost, remove such banner, poster, advertisement or board as well as reinstate the wall and/or external wall upon which the same has been displayed to their condition prior to the display, and should the Hirer fail to do so, the Manager shall have the full right to effect such removal and reinstatement without being responsible for any loss and/or damage to such banner, poster, advertisement or board and the Hirer shall pay to the Manager the cost incurred by the Manager in effecting such removal and reinstatement.

44. Typhoon Procedure

- (a) The Auditorium closes for staff and building safety reasons as soon as the number 8 typhoon signal is hoisted and reopens 6 hours after the number 8 typhoon signal has been lowered if at such time it is still within the normal business hours of the Manager.
- (b) Should the Hirer decide to cancel the Confirmed Booking prior to the number 8 typhoon signal being hoisted, there will be no refund of the venue hire charges paid or payable to the Manager.
- (c) If the Event or the Function scheduled to be performed or presented in the hired venue has to be cancelled due to the number 8 typhoon signal being hoisted prior to the start of the Event or the Function, the Hirer shall be offered either an alternative date for the Function provided that a date is available within 30 days according to the bookings made with the Manager or 50% of the venue hire charges paid or payable to the Manager shall be refunded to the Hirer.
- (d) If the number 8 typhoon signal is hoisted during the Event or the Function on a day and the Event or the Function is stopped or cancelled on that day the Hirer shall be entitled to cancel the booking on that day or book an alternative date provided a date according to the bookings made with the Manager is available within 30 days. In either case, no refund of any hire charges paid or payable to the Manager shall be made to the Hirer.

45. Black Rainstorm Procedure

- (a) The Auditorium remains close for staff safety reason if a black rainstorm signal is hoisted before the Auditorium opens and reopens 6 hours after the black rainstorm signal has been lowered if at such time it is still within the normal business hours of the Manager.
- (b) If the Event or the Function scheduled to be performed or presented in the hired venue has to be cancelled due to the blackrain signal being hoisted prior to the start of the Event or the Function, the Hirer shall be offered either an alternative date for the Function provided that a date is available within 30 days according to the bookings made with the Manager or 50% of the hire charges paid or payable to the Manager shall be refunded to the Hirer.
- (c) If the black rainstorm signal is hoisted during the Auditorium opening hours, the operations of the Auditorium will remain as usual. Hirers shall be entitled to continue or cancel the Event or Function scheduled for the time during which the black rainstorm signal is hoisted. No alternative booking will be offered to the Hirers and no refund of any hire charges paid or payable to the Manager shall be made to the Hirer.

46. Vacating Premises

The Hirer, his servants and agents, and all other persons admitted by him shall vacate the Auditorium on or before the expiry or sooner termination of the hiring. If the Hirer does not vacate the Auditorium as herein provided he shall pay to the University on demand the hire charge in respect of the period from the expiry or sooner termination of the hiring until the Hirer, his servants and agents, and other persons admitted by him actually vacate the Auditorium and shall compensate the University for any loss of revenue or liability for damages suffered by the University as a result of the failure of the Hirer to vacate the Auditorium.

47. Removal of Property

- (a) Except with the permission of the Manager, all properties brought into the Auditorium by the Hirer or his servants and agents must be removed therefrom on or before the expiry or sooner termination of the hiring.
- (b) If after the expiry or sooner termination of any hiring, any property of the Hirer or any other person is found in the Auditorium, the Manager may remove and store the same in such manner as he may consider necessary and, on demand, the Hirer shall repay to the University the cost of such removal and storage which shall be a first charge upon such property.
- (c) If any such property is not claimed or if any of the removal and storage charges payable in respect thereof are not paid within three months of the date when such property was first found, the Manager, in his absolute discretion, may cause such property to be sold and, in such event, shall apply the proceeds of sale in payment of the said removal and storage charges and the cost of such sale, if any of the same be not otherwise recovered, and shall pay the balance remaining thereafter into the revenue of the University.
- (d) The Manager may order the Hirer to remove from the Auditorium anything brought by the Hirer or his servants and agents, which in the opinion of the Manager is dangerous or liable to cause nuisance or obstruction and the Hirer shall thereupon immediately remove or cause the removal of such thing.
- (e) No liability whatsoever shall be attached to the University or any of its servants or agents as a result of the exercise of any of the rights under this Clause and the Hirer shall indemnify the University and its servants and agents against all claims, demands, actions, proceedings, liabilities as well as costs and expenses, whatsoever and howsoever occasioned in respect thereof or otherwise howsoever in connection therewith.

48. Breach of Terms and Conditions

If the Hirer shall fail to pay the venue hire charges on any of the dates set out in the Confirmed Booking Letter or observe or perform any of the provisions of these Terms and Conditions, the Manager may, without notice, cancel the Confirmed Booking, and terminate the hiring of the hired venue and, without prejudice to other remedies the Manager may have hereunder, any venue hire charges paid by the Hirer shall be forfeited. The Manager shall not be liable to the Hirer for any loss or damage whatsoever arising out of such cancellation, to include but not limited to any consequential loss of profit or income or damage suffered due to claims made by third parties against the Hirer. Further and without prejudice to the foregoing, the Manager shall have the right to deduct from any deposit received from the Hirer for whatever purposes and/or ticket sales proceeds collected for and on behalf of the Hirer from the appointed ticket sales agent under these Terms and Conditions, any sum due by the Hirer to the Manager hereunder without further notice to the Hirer.

49. Non-liability for Loss and indemnity

- (a) The University and their servants and agents shall not be liable for any damage to or loss of any property of the Hirer or his servants and agents, guests and audience or any other person resulting from any cause whatsoever during the hiring and the Hirer shall indemnify and keep indemnified (on full indemnity basis) the University and its servants and agents from and against all claims, loss, damage, demands, actions, proceedings and costs in respect of such damage or loss.
- (b) The University, its servants and agents shall not be liable for any loss due to any break-down of machinery, failure of supply of electricity, leakage of water, fire, typhoon, rain storm, government restrictions or acts of God which may cause the Auditorium to be temporarily closed or the hiring to be interrupted or cancelled.
- (c) The Hirer shall indemnify the University against all claims, loss, damage, actions or proceedings, and cost on a full indemnity basis brought against or suffered by the University as a result of or relating to the damage, loss, theft or accidents on or of the property, which arises from the Hirer's use of the hired venue or occurrence during the Period of Hire.
- (d) The Hirer shall indemnify and keep indemnified (on full indemnity basis) the University and its servants and agents from and against all claims, loss, damage, demands, actions, proceedings and costs in respect of the death of or injury to the Hirer or his servants and agents, guests and audience or any other person, which shall arise from any accident or occurrence in the Auditorium hired by him or in respect of any loss or damage suffered or sustained by any person in consequence of such death or injury.

- (e) Under no circumstance whatsoever shall the Manager be liable for any loss of profit or revenue suffered or alleged to have been suffered by the Hirer arising from the use of any box office system operated by the Hirer or a third party or in connection with a technical breakdown of such system. Save and except to the extent such loss was caused directly due to the negligence of the Manager or his staff in the operation of a box office system in respect of the Event.
- (f) For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby expressly agreed and declared that the provisions of this clause shall at all times apply in full force and without any modification whatsoever, in particular, nothing contained herein shall be affected by any other provisions in these Terms and Conditions or any act done or permission or approval given thereunder.

50. Insurance

The Hirer shall, at his own expenses, take out and maintain a policy or policies of insurance against liability for death, injury, loss or damage from whatever cause arising from the Hirer's use of the Auditorium.

51. Severability

The invalidity or illegality of any part of these Terms and Conditions of Hire shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other part of these Terms and Conditions.

52. University May Act Through Persons Authorised

Any direction, requirement, notice, act or thing which the University is by these Terms and Conditions required or empowered to give or do may be given or done on behalf of the University by any officer of the University so duly authorised thereunder.

53. Notice to Hirer

Any written notice, demand or request by the University to the Hirer may be sent to the Hirer at the address as given by the Hirer in the Application Form or such other address as the Hirer may subsequently notify the University in writing and shall be deemed to be received by the Hirer when left at the said address if delivered by hand during normal business hours or on the next working day following the day of posting if sent by post.

54. Alteration and Change

It is hereby expressly agreed and declared that in all those cases where the acceptance of any booking or additional booking is confirmed by the Manager, these Terms and Conditions (including but not limited to any of the Schedule hereto) shall be liable to be changed or altered at the absolute discretion of the University at any time. Any such changes or alteration shall take effect as if they had been made before the application for the booking was submitted. The Hirer shall, however, be notified of any such changes or alteration as soon as practicable upon the same being made.

FIRST SCHEDULE

Hiring Policy and Booking arrangement

1. Preamble

(a) Booking applications from External Hirer will only be considered if the Event satisfies all of the following conditions: -

(1) It will not cause disruption to the normal activities of the University.

(2) It is beneficial to the University.

(3) It is in the academic/educational/cultural/entertainment field or it provides social service to the community.

(b) Functions of political nature are generally not allowed.

2. Hirers who belong to The Hong Kong Polytechnic University student organisations and departments will be categorised as Internal Hirers. All Internal Hirers will be given priority in bookings (Priority Bookings).

3. Priority Booking applications are accepted not less than 2 months but not more than 12 months in advance of the month of hire (Priority booking period) and to be processed in one lot. (e.g. application for use in July 1999 – May 2000 may be made in May 1999)

4. Hirers who do not belong to any of the University student organisations or departments will be categorised as External Hirers. All External Hirers' bookings will be treated as ordinary bookings and will be charged at the standard venue hire charge.

5. Ordinary Booking applications, which are considered as entertainment by the Manager are accepted not less than 3 months but not more than 9 months in advance of the month of hire (Ordinary booking period) and processed in one lot. (e.g. application for use in August 1999 – January 2000 may be made in May 1999.)

6. Ordinary Booking applications, which are considered as non-entertainment by the Manager, are accepted not less than 1 month but not more than 4 months prior to the day of use.

7. Completed application forms should reach the Manager during normal office hours on or before the last working day of each month to enable the processing in one lot. A formal reply will usually be given on the 15th day of the following month.

8. When more than one applicant wish to book the same slot, applications will be considered in accordance with the nature and duration of the proposed function and the organising ability of the applicant.

9. Applications received after the Ordinary Booking period are considered as Late bookings and will only be considered on a very exceptional basis.

10. All bookings should be made through the submission of application forms to the Manager. The application shall constitute an offer to hire the venue from the Manager. A booking is only valid upon the Manager's written confirmation.

11. Confirmation of bookings rest solely on the discretion of the Manager.
