Lo (1910-1995), which include many fine examples of the famous Yixing tea ware. The Flagstaff House itself boasts a history of over 170 years, which originally served as the office and residence of the Commander of the British Forces in Hong Kong. Led by Mr Tang Hoi-chiu, you will be dazzled by the rich collections of the Flagstaff House Museum of Tea Ware and the long history of Chinese tea drinking and tea ware.

Mr Tang Hoi-chiu, former Chief Curator of the Hong Kong Museum of Art, has curated a great number of exhibitions of both Chinese and Western art. He has also served as adjudicator and nominator for local and international art competitions.
