

STUDENT GUIDE TO ONLINE LEARNING

Five Tips to Succeed in Online Learning

- Proactive: Treat online learning seriously. Review all uploaded teaching materials before class.
- Place: Find a quiet and suitable location for accessing wifi to attend your online lessons.
- Presence: Know your class schedule and 'show up' at your online lessons and discussion groups.
- Participation: Participate actively in online discussions and other learning activities.
- Planning: Create a weekly out-of-class learning schedule, then set reminders for yourself.

Dos and Don'ts for Online Learning

To give you more ideas of what to do and not to do in online learning, here is a list of Dos and Don'ts. Consult your department/ programme leader/ subject teachers for specific dos and don'ts related to your programme and subject.

Do	Don't
✓ Use the online tools to communicate with your teachers	✗ Be shy or wait until too late
✓ Create the opportunity to engage in group discussions with your classmates	✗ Be shy or wait until your classmates approach you
✓ Be motivated, engaged and persistent in learning	✗ Be discouraged, disengaged and give up easily
✓ Manage your time well	✗ Procrastinate until the last minute
✓ Make a daily to-do list	✗ Study and do your work at random without a plan
✓ Seek help whenever needed	✗ Hesitate and worry without asking for help
✓ Start doing your homework/ assignment early	✗ Start doing homework/ assignment at the last minute
✓ Contact your teachers immediately when you encounter any problems/questions	✗ Wait until there is an issue and try to find your teachers
✓ Maintain close communication with your teachers and fellow students	✗ Not contact or respond to your teachers and fellow students
✓ Utilise other learning resources available to you (e.g. library, tutor, academic advising, counseling)	✗ Solely rely on the materials provided at the online platform
✓ Maintain academic integrity	✗ Cheat or commit plagiarism
✓ Visit the subject site (e.g. Blackboard, Microsoft Teams) regularly (say, 2 or 3 times a week) to see if there are any new announcements, updates, course materials, and feedback	✗ Visit the subject site only when required (e.g. submitting assignments)

The following are some checklists that are designed for you to use. We hope you will have a smooth transition and fruitful experience of online learning. Please consult your department/ programme leader/ subject teachers if you have queries about the checklists.

Basic Preparations for Online Learning

Check that you have the following before the start of your online lessons, preferably at least three days before the first lesson to allow you time to get any outstanding preparation done. If you are unable to resolve the problems by yourself, you should consult your department/ programme leader/ subject teachers immediately.

Basic preparations for online learning	Self-Check	If your answer is 'no'...
1. Do you have access to a computer and stable internet connection?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No	Consider where you can go safely for a stable internet connection, or a quiet and suitable place to go online. The campus is an option but be sure to make all necessary precautions as advised by the University.
2. Do you have access to a quiet and suitable place to attend your online lessons?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No
