

Prof. Zheng Shiyuan

Shanghai Maritime University (SMU)

Email: msyzheng@shmtu.edu.cn

Topic: Joint Investment on Transport Infrastructure: Resilience from the Cross Country Perspective

Prof. Shiyuan Zheng is a Professor in the School of Transportation, Shanghai Maritime University, Shanghai, China. He obtained PhD degree from Antai School of Management, Shanghai Jiaotong University, China. His research interests include transport emission control and adaptation to climate change-related disaster, port governance, competition and cooperation. Prof. Zheng is Vice-Chairman of the Water Transportation Department of the World Transport Convention.

He has published about 40 articles on academic journals including Transportation Research Part B/C/D/E. He was awarded the “Best Paper Award” at the World Transport Convention (WTC) in 2018 and 2021, and one of 8 shortlisted in the Annual Best Manuscript award of Maritime Policy and Management in 2017 and 2018. He has also provided consultancy work for the Ministry of Transport and many ports in China.