

*HKICM / HKCA SME Committee
2017 Joint Conference*

The Bridge to Advancement : New Horizons in Hong Kong's Construction Industry

The Hong Kong Government has been increasing its mega infrastructure investment over the past decade, with projects that include the Hong Kong-Zhuhai-Macau Bridge, Kai Tak Development and the Third Runway System. Construction Management is a profession that is dedicated to ensuring the quality and successful execution of projects from inception to completion. With the increasing complexity of these projects, the demand for superior construction manpower is constantly growing.

The Conference will focus on the evolving challenges that the industry and construction managers face – including government policies, the construction productivity, the adoption of new technologies, and sustainability. The Conference will share the latest insights and practices from throughout the region, offering participants new strategies and tools to equip themselves for future challenges.
