

Note to student participants:

While joining the outbound enrichment activity/programme, you are playing a role to represent PolyU to interact and learn with peer students from other universities in the Chinese mainland or Taiwan. We would like to ask for your cooperation to abide by the following guidelines/regulations which are set to show our respect to organizers and to ensure the activity/programme be held successfully, achieving the objectives so devised.

Before the trip...

- Submit the required documents and settle outbound activity fee on time.
- Taking the flight/ train to and from Hong Kong booked by CMAO.

During the trip..

- Obey the rules and regulations of the Programme.
- Attend all official functions punctually and participate fully and cooperatively in the Programme.
- Complete all components required by the programme/subject, including handing in assignments and passing the course examinations if any

After the trip...

- Submit a reflective activity report around 300 words and at least 10 event photos to CMAO within one month after the activity.
- Complete an online survey after the activity.

Special Subsidy

A special subsidies of HK$1,000 will be provided to students who have completed the activity and satisfactorily fulfilled the above requirements.