

Biography of Professor Edwin H. W. CHAN

Professor, Leader - Research Laboratory for Sustainable Land Use, Research Institute for Sustainable Urban Development, PolyU

BA, LLB, MA, PhD, MBE, FHKI Arb, RIBA, RICS, Barrister-at-law, Chartered Architect / Surveyor / Engineer, and Lawyer

Professor Edwin H.W. CHAN is a full Professor and Associate Head (Research) in the Building and Real Estate Department at the Hong Kong Polytechnic University. He is qualified as a chartered Architect/Surveyor/Engineer and a lawyer. He is a Key Member of the PolyU Research Institute of Sustainable Development (as the leader of Urban Land Use research group). His research interests include sustainable urban development, social sustainability, urban renewal, green building and dispute resolution. He has served as a member of the Housing Authority and the Town Planning Board of the Hong Kong SAR government. He has been a visiting scholar at the UC Berkeley, USA and the Cambridge University of the UK, in 2014.