

Spectacular Views of Hong Kong Hiking Trails

Green Tips - Oct 2019

Photo credit: Instagram/@thelongwayround_

Dragon's Back trail has been voted the best urban hike in Asia by TIME Magazine. It provides spectacular views of mansions, beaches, and weaves through quaint fishing villages.

Hiking Time:
About 4 hours
Difficulty:
Moderate

Source: FolloMe

Photo credit: Instagram/@cornfee

大東山
SUNSET PEAK

Sunset Peak, featuring gorgeous sunset views, is the third highest mountain in Hong Kong. In autumn or winter, you will find the unforgettable shiny seas of silvergrass along the trail.

Hiking Time: About 4.5 hours | Difficulty: Difficult

Starting Point

Pak Kung Au

End Point

Mui Wo

Source: FolloMe

獅子山
LION ROCK

Photo credit: Instagram/@hitmyfeel

Lion Rock trail overlooks the views of the most densely populated areas of Hong Kong. If you want to catch the sunset or night views, go on this trail first during daytime, or go with someone who is experienced.

Hiking Time: About 5 hours | Difficulty: Difficult

End Point
Kowloon Reservoir

Starting Point

Sha Tin Pass Road

Source: FolloMe

Leave No Trace

1. Bring your own utensils and bottle. Avoid disposables
2. Use handkerchiefs instead of tissues
3. Avoid wasting food
4. Buy and bring less pre-packaged food
5. Take your litter and belongings home
6. Pick durable and reusable materials

Read More:

▲ 【專頁：秋日行山樂】靚景路線推介 與狗同行貼士 實用裝備攻略 | 香港01
<https://bit.ly/32YyTdS>

▲ Enjoy Hiking - Safety Guidelines | Agriculture, Fisheries and Conservation Department
<https://bit.ly/2JuUymm>

References:

▲ Discover Hong Kong - Hikes | Hong Kong Tourism Board
<https://bit.ly/36cjMzD>

▲ Note from "Megaphone" - Leave No Trace | TrailWatch
<https://bit.ly/2Jy07jP>