

Dear RPg students and graduates

You are cordially invited to apply for the 2022 Young Scientist Awards which will be presented at the Hong Kong Institution of Science (HKIS) Annual Conference. With an aim to reward young scientists and engineers in Hong Kong who show great promise in their field of study, the Award carries a cash prize of $10,000 to a winner and $5,000 to an honorable mention in each of the three fields of science: Physical/ Mathematical Science, Life Science, and Engineering Science.

The Awards are open to all postgraduate research students in any of the tertiary institutions in Hong Kong. Those who have graduated within two years are also eligible. Further information and application form are available here. All submissions should reach the Honorary Secretary at bckleung@polyu.edu.hk on or before 31 July 2022.

Regards
Graduate School
