

China Pre-Tour of IAST 2011 Taiwan Meeting, May 17- June 5, 2011

Departs Beijing May 17, 4 days in Shanxi visiting historic hanging temples and ancient cities, flight to Urumchi and Silk Road via Kashgar, Turpan, Heavenly Lake, Dunhuang (Magao Caves), then flight to Nanjing. Tour Ends in Shanghai.

IAST Members can then fly directly to Taipei. US $3530 is all-inclusive price, including internal air fares, 4* hotels, all meals, guide/ baggage handling tips. International air-fare not included. Single supplement US $600.

This tour is a NON-PROFIT activity for members and friends of the Valene L. Smith Museum of Anthropology at CSU-Chico and open to IAST members their families/guests. Tour staff includes: Valene L. Smith and long time friend Dr. Changhua Wang, formerly Senior Officer for Beijing Council, developing and bringing American visitors to China. He is currently Director, Northwest Education Statistical Laboratory in Portland, Oregon. Registration now $250; balance due February 28, 2011.

Detailed itinerary: contact ysmith@csuchico.edu