Remarks by FB:

1. The offering of a given subject is subject to approval of the subject offering department and its number of enrolments after the University's add/drop period.
2. The special approval to waive pre-requisite requirements of a given subject is at the discretion of the FB and the relevant subject offering department. Such special approval does not constitute grounds for appeal against examination result. And, no quota will be reserved before approval is obtained.
3. Only the above listed "groups" are offered to exchange/ study abroad students. When selecting subjects for registration, students are required to indicate (1) the subject codes, (2) subject titles as well as (3) groups to IAO/FB.
4. Priority of subject registration will be given to the students who are enrolled into the source programme of the relevant subject on a first-come-first-served basis.
5. When selecting subjects to register, it is the responsibility of the student to check the relevant class schedules so as to maintain a clash-free timetable.
6. Students should in principle take most subjects (at least 50%) from the programme they have enrolled in.
