

Part 1: Importing “L2L Self -Evaluation” to Your Blackboard Course

1. Login to LEARN@PolyU (<http://learn.polyu.edu.hk>)
2. Select one of your course under “My Course”
3. On the left menu, under course management, find and click Control Panel then Course Tools then Tests, Surveys, and Pools to reach the following screen:

4. Click Tests and then Import Test to initiate the importing process.
5. Click Browse My Computer and select one L2L Self-Evaluation module, then hit Open.
(We have a total of 5 self-evaluations. You can only import one at a time.)

6. Please check your selected file is correct. Then click Submit button to import and hit OK, and the L2L Self-Evaluation module will be imported to your Blackboard course.

Part 2: Setting Up L2L Self-Evaluation as a Test

After importing the L2L Self-Evaluation modules, you need to set them up as tests in order to make them available to students.

1. Navigate to the course area where you want to add the L2L Self-Evaluation modules.
2. On the action bar, point to Assessments to access the drop-down list. Select Test.
3. Select one of the L2L Self-Evaluation modules from the list and click Submit. The Test Options page appears.
4. On the Test Options page, change the test setting as follows:
