

BIOGRAPHY

Ting-Yi Tsai

---

Mr. Tsai is currently a Vice President of Business at Taiwan International Ports Corporation, Ltd. (TIPC) and also the Chairman of Taiwan International Ports Logistics Corporation (one of TIPC's subsidiary companies). He has extensive industrial experiences across the areas of maritime and port business. He started his career at Kaohsiung Harbour Bureau in 1978. He acted as Harbour Master at the Port of Kaohsiung in 2005-2012 and then served as the President, the Port of Keelung Branch, TIPC in 2013-2017.

Mr. Tsai is studying in PhD programme at the Department of Shipping and Transportation Management, National Kaohsiung University of Science and Technology in Taiwan. He studied at Maritime College of the State University of New York in 1992-1993 and then received his MA from the Department of Public Affair Management, National Sun Yat-sen University (Taiwan) in 2003.