			a.	b.
	Continuous Assessment*	40%
	Research proposal & Presentation	40%	✓	✓
	Examination	60%	✓	✓
	Total	100 %
*Weighting of assessment methods/tasks in continuous assessment may be different, subject to each subject lecturer.
To pass this subject, students are required to obtain Grade D or above in the Continuous Assessment components.
Explanation of the appropriateness of the assessment methods in assessing the intended learning outcomes:
Normally, no lectures are given for guided studies subject, and the RPg student is required by the supervisor to read specified monographs and journal publications. The RPg student has to meet the supervisor frequently to discuss his/her progress. The RPg student has to submit a research proposal and make a presentation to the supervisor. Each research proposal is unique, as the research topic and methodology may vary largely depending on the research questions. At the end of the semester, the RPg student is examined by the supervisor and another staff member who is knowledgeable about the topic.

Note 1: Intended Learning Outcomes

Intended learning outcomes should state what students should be able to do or attain upon completion of the subject. Subject outcomes are expected to contribute to the attainment of the overall programme outcomes.

Note 2: Subject Synopsis/ Indicative Syllabus

The syllabus should adequately address the intended learning outcomes. At the same time over-crowding of the syllabus should be avoided.

Note 3: Teaching/Learning Methodology

This section should include a brief description of the teaching and learning methods to be employed to facilitate learning, and a justification of how the methods are aligned with the intended learning outcomes of the subject.

Note 4: Assessment Method

This section should include the assessment method(s) to be used and its relative weighting, and indicate which of the subject intended learning outcomes that each method purports to assess. It should also provide a brief explanation of the appropriateness of the assessment methods in assessing the intended learning outcomes.
