Teaching

I have taught the following courses:

Introductory Psychology, Social Psychology, Personality, Developmental Psychology, Abnormal Psychology, Cross-cultural Psychology, Culture and Social Behavior, Management and Organization, Cross-cultural Management, and the Psychology of the Chinese People.

Clinical Training and Experience

I completed a psychology traineeship at the Palo Alto Veterans Administration Hospital under Dr. Sidney Wohl and Dr. Eugene Zukowsky in 1968-1969, consisting of 1200 hours of supervised clinical training.

I have subsequently undertaken clinical training and personal development in workshops and residential programmes led by Marty Bennett, Robert Blake, Bob and Mary Goulding, Jeff and Marg White, Jeffrey Zeig, Bill O'Hanlon, Stephan Gilligan, and Judith Delozier.

I engaged in private practice from 1971 to 1991. This included both marital and family counselling as well as individual and group psychotherapy. From 1985 to 1992, I led intensive weekend training groups of 8-12 persons at the Chinese University using the principles of Gestalt process and transactional analysis. I ran group psychotherapy workshops for incoming students to the Chinese University Master's programme in clinical psychology for two years in the 1990's.
