Service Project
What will students do to serve?	Students will visit NGOs which serve underprivileged families in Hong Kong. Through the sharing by the beneficiaries, students can understand the challenges encountered by these families.  Students are required to draft proposals and implement their service plan (e.g. conduct diet assessment and diet counselling for families, conduct workshops/camps about nutrition) to different groups of beneficiaries to educate them about nutrition knowledge and healthy diet, and to promote health.
Whom will students serve?	Underprivileged families in Hong Kong
Where will students serve?	Hong Kong
When will students serve?	The services will take place during the summer semester. Students may be expected to serve on weeknights.
Fee payable by students	N/A
