Service Project
What will students do to serve?	We have 3 projects this year: Cambodia Service-Learning Project Chinese Mainland Service-Learning Project Taiwan Service-Learning Project Regardless of the service points, students will serve as literacy tutors and in collaboration with local volunteers render a 40-hour English reading workshop for primary school children in the receiving schools. Prior to the service, you will be introduced to basic teaching skills and background information about how English is taught and learnt in the service area. You then develop a relevant teaching kit for the service recipients. Students who have taken the subject have thoroughly enjoyed their time. The opportunities of serving as upfront teachers for young children and the chance of working closely with locals similar to their age have enabled students to better understand the challenges that young children in less developed areas are facing. Students serving in Cambodia have been identified during the subject pre-selection process.
