

UGC “Whole-person Development Fund” – Mini-conference 2023/24

Understanding the Development of the Nation

Theme:

Understanding the Development of the Nation

Overview of the Project:

This University Grant Committee (UGC) has provided financial support for the project aiming to promote undergraduate students’ understanding of the achievements made and the challenges faced by the Nation. All full-time undergraduate students are welcome to join this project.

There are two stages of the submission procedure:

- In Stage 1, interested applicants are required to submit an entry form with a brief description of their video/poster plan (no more than 300 words) to the Office of Undergraduate Studies, and a preliminary screening will be conducted to select 50 applicants. The selected applicants will be given a subsidy of $2,000 to produce a 5-minute video or design a poster focusing on the achievements made and the challenges faced by the Nation.
- In Stage 2, the selected 50 applicants are required to submit the completed video/poster with a project report (not less than 100 words).

Objectives of the Present Project:

- To understand the achievements made and the challenges faced by the Nation;
- To cultivate critical analysis and reflective skills regarding the Nation’s achievements and challenges;
- To develop and enhance skills in poster/video production and oral presentation skills through participation in the mini-conference.

Organizer & Co-organizer:

The present project is jointly organized by the Office of Undergraduate Studies and Wofoo Leaders’ Network, The Hong Kong Polytechnic University.
