Important points to note when traveling to HK

- Schedule your transportation arrangements once you have obtained your student visa.
- Please login to the online application portal and submit your pre-departure details to Global Engagement Office.
- Purchase travel insurance for your trip to Hong Kong on your own, if applicable.

While you will be covered by the basic insurance coverage (Group Personal Accident Insurance) for joining PolyU activities during your stay in Hong Kong, please arrange Group Medical (GM) Insurance on your own, if needed. You may reference to Register of Licensed Insurance Intermediaries when sourcing.

Earliest Check-in Date: 27 August 2024 (Tuesday)

- The Hall Administration of Student Halls will send you the hall application result with the check-in procedures in due course.
- Students should make their own accommodation arrangements for the period before the scheduled check-in date.
- The check-in counter operates from 9.30 am to 9.30 pm. To better manage the check-in arrangement, students are encouraged to arrive before 9.00 pm.
- Late check-in after 11.00 pm will generally not be considered. For students who need to check-in after 11.00 pm, please email the Hall Administration and attach a copy of their inbound travel tickets at least 3 working days prior to their arrival in Hong Kong for consideration.
