Compassionate Leader Scholarship
Institution's Statement of Recommendation (2025/26 Cohort)

The Hong Kong Jockey Club Compassionate Leader Scholarship is dedicated to nurturing top talent to become compassionate and socially-minded leaders, acting for the betterment of Hong Kong. The Scholarship awardees, also referred to as JC Scholars, are outstanding and well-rounded students committed to serving the core sectors in Hong Kong's society through their chosen academic and professional fields, including but not limited to education, health, social sciences, sports and culture, STEM and business.

This Statement of Recommendation should be completed and signed by the applicant's current institution. The statement should be an informed and comprehensive assessment of the applicant's academic achievements, abilities, character, leadership and commitment to service. The statement may be provided by the following parties: the applicant's faculty, school, or department; or the institution's student affairs office, scholarships office, and equivalent units handling the scholarship application.

Please fill in ALL fields in ENGLISH unless otherwise indicated. This document is available in English only. The Hong Kong Jockey Club (the "Club") will not review attachments not requested for submission.

Please fill in and sign this form digitally in fillable PDF format, using Adobe Acrobat Reader, which you can download for free at <https://get.adobe.com/reader/>. You can refer to the "Instructions for Digital Signature" for guidance to certify the recommendation. Please avoid printing and scanning this form or using other file formats, as this may delay the processing of the application.
