

Posting Date:	ASAP
Post / Position:	Associate Technical Design
Company:	Victoria's Secret & Co.
Nature of Business:	Lingerie
Location:	Kowloon Bay, Kowloon
Job Description / Responsibility:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Assist Technical Design to provide technical support to Design, Pre-Production, Merchant and Production teams for VSS and VSD during product development and pre-production activities. • Develop product technical specification packages to communicate requirements for fit and construction, taking responsibility for all aspects of technical pre-production work relating to fit and construction. • Assist Technical Design in fit session, ensure that products are developed consistent with established fit and quality standards, manufacturer's capabilities and cost specifications. Support in process for technical development in fit and construction to identify possible first to market opportunities. • Assisting in approve Red Tag and Top of Production submissions to agreed stands of fit and construction. • Great Team partner, act proactive, positive, supportive & consistently demonstrating our shared values and high standards. • Communicate technical specification requirements to vendors.
Salary and Fringe Benefits:	We offer a competitive compensation package to the right candidate
Requirement:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A technical education in garment fit and construction to degree level or equivalent work experience. • 2 years of technical experience, gained while working within either the clothing industry, or in a retail environment. Practical experience of patternmaking and garment construction for bulk production. Fresh grade is also considered.
Contact:	Candy Young
E-address:	cyoung@victoria.com