

Position: Business Control Intern

Company: International Trading Fashion & Apparel Supply Ltd

Location: Hong Kong Island

Duration: 6 months

Job Responsibilities

- Support monthly closing activities (analysis of actual results vs. budget and forecast; variance analysis i.e. costs, margins, OPEX, CAPEX)
- Assist in the preparation of budgets and forecasts
- Assist in updating and improving financial reporting for regional management and headquarters
- Support in analyzing business and operational performance
- Monitor and follow up on key performance indicators (KPIs)
- Provide financial support to local operational teams Participate in cross-functional projects (process improvements, reporting automation, BI tools)
- Prepare financial presentations and management decks (PowerPoint)

Job Requirements

- Student in Finance/Business Control/Procurement discipline
- Good command of English language, oral and written
- French language skills would be an advantage

Interested parties please share your CV s Portfolio with us at priscilla.lam@kiabiasia.com

Company Profile

Kiabi is a major European garment retailer and an internationally recognized brand name with over 600 stores in 26 countries including but not limited to France, Spain, Italy, Portugal, Belgium, Algeria, Morocco C The Netherlands etc.

Here at Kiabi, we reap the benefits of having a culture of happiness amongst our employees!

We are a Great Place to Work comprising people who are talented, individual, passionate about fashion and bursting with energy, to make everyday fun! If your dream company involves hands-on management, committed teams and an enterprising culture built upon audacity and trust; if your dream job means you are free to express your own ideas, use your initiative and meet challenges... come and join us!

"ITFAS" the local sourcing C trading office of Kiabi have been awarded the "Great Place To Work" and "Caring Company Logo". We are looking for high caliber candidates to join our dynamic and fast growing operations in Hong Kong. This position offers immense potential for career development and progression.