Updated on 21 Nov 2023

 culturally different from them. Direct interaction opportunities will be provided to students to experience how to communicate with the service targets. Students will act as cultural facilitators by helping the service users to discover the uniqueness of their culture. Students will guide the service targets to reflect on and raise their awareness about their culture. Students will also organize cultural activities in the serving community or present the local culture to a wider community for promotion and cultural preservation. What will students do to serve? What will students do to serve? The tentative plan is to serve the minority groups in Mainland China. Therefore, the ability to speak Putonghua is a requirement. Depending on the pandemic situation, a 10-day service trip in summer 2024 or online service will be conducted. The service plan is subject to issues concerning pandemic situation, mutual agreement between PolyU and our local service partners, as well as other relating issues. Flexibility towards uncertainty is highly encouraged. Students should be fully aware of the fundamental difference between service 	Updated on 21 Nov 2023
Hosting Department The Department of Chinese Culture Hesting Department The Department of Chinese Culture Level 2 Class Quota 35 Medium of Instruction English and Putonghua Subject Duration Semester 2 + Summer Term Teaching Staff Prof. Han Xiaorong, Dr Li Meng Target Students GUR, open for all Pre-requisites Nili Selection of students required? Student should write a 200-word self-introduction for submission to the system. Students who are fluent in Putonghua, with good communication skills and a strong sense of responsibility are preferred. Higher priority will be given to students with talents in music or art, and experience in volunteer work or social work. The maturity of the students will also be taken into account. Suitable candidates will be invited to attend group interview. bttps://www.polyu.edu.hk/cc/- //media/department/cc/content/study/courses-offering/20212zem2. Cc2502a subject description.pdf?la=tc&hash=41755A B202E49489535A1452FBDFAF21 Service Project Students in small groups will work with a group of service targets who are the functional facilitators by helping the service targets. Students will act as cultural facilitators by helping the service targets. Students will act as cultural facilitators by helping the service targets to reflect on and raise their awareness about their culture. Students wills also organize. Students will act as cultural facilitators by helping the service targets. Students will act ascultural f	Subject Code	CHC2S02P
Level 2 Class Quota 35 Medium of Instruction English and Putonghua Subject Duration Semester 2 + Summer Term Teaching Staff Prof. Han Xiaorong, Dr Li Meng Target Students GUR, open for all Pre-requisites Nil Yes Student should write a 200-word self-introduction for submission to the system. Students who are fluent in Putonghua, with good communication skills and a strong sense of responsibility are prefered. Higher priority will be given to students with talents in music or art, and experience in volunteer work or social work. The maturity of the students will also be taken into account. Suitable candidates will be invited to attend group interview. https://www.polyu.edu.hk/cc/. Subject Synopsis Students in small groups will work with a group of service targets who are cultural/different from them. Direct interaction opportunities will be provided be 202849489535341452FBDFAF21 Service Project Students in small groups will work with a group of service targets to reflect on and raise their awareness about their culture. Students will act actultural facilitators by helping the service targets to reflect on and raise their awareness about their culture. Students will acreate to remunity for promotion and cultural preservation. What will students do to serve? Depending on the pandemic situation, a 10-day service trip in summer 2024 or online service will be conducted. What will students do to serve? Children or youth from minority groups in M	Subject Title	Presenting Cultural Diversity: Concepts and Practices
Class Quota 35 Medium of Instruction English and Putonghua Subject Duration Semester 2 + Summer Term Teaching Staff Prof. Han Xiaorong, Dr Li Meng Target Students GUR, open for all Pre-requisites Nil Selection of students required? Skills and a strong sense of responsibility are preferred. Higher priority will be given to students with talents in music or art, and experience in volunteer work or social work. The maturity of the students will also be taken into account. Suitable candidates will be invited to attend group interview. https://www.polyu.edu.hk/cc/- Subject Synopsis Students in small groups will work with a group of service targets who are culturally different from them. Direct interaction opportunities will be provided to students will also to sorganize cultural activities in the service targets to reflect on and raise their awareness about their culture. Students will guide the service targets to reflect on and raise their awareness about their culture. Students will be organize cultural activities in the serving carget to reflect, and experience to subcover the uniqueness of their culture. Students will also acguitable organize cultural activities in the serving cargets. Students he service targets to reflect on and raise their awareness about their culture. Students will be ado sorganize cultural activities in the serving cargets to reflect. What will students do to serve? Depending on the pandemic situation, a 10-day service trip in summer 2024 or online service will be conducted. The service plan is subject to issues concerning pa	Hosting Department	The Department of Chinese Culture
Crease Quota English and Putonghua Subject Duration Eenglish and Putonghua Subject Duration Semester 2 + Summer Term Target Students GUR, open for all Pre-requisites Nil Selection of students required? Student should write a 200-word self-introduction for submission to the system. Students who are fluent in Putonghua, with good communication skills and a strong sense of responsibility are preferred. Higher priority will be given to students with alents in music or art, and experience in volunteer work or social work. The maturity of the students will also be taken into account. Suitable candidates will be invited to attend group interview. https://www.polyu.edu.hk/cc/ /media/department/cc/content/study/courses-offering/2021222em2 cc23202 subject description pdf?la=tc&hash=41755A B202B49489535A1452FBDFAF21 Service Project Students in small groups will work with a group of service targets who are culturally different from them. Direct interaction opportunities will be provided to students to experience how to communicate with the service targets. Students will also organize cultural activities in the serving community or present the local culture to a wider community for promotion and cultural preservation. What will students do to serve? Depending on the pandemic situation, a 10-day service trip in summer 2024 or online service parts is subject to issues concerning pandemic situation, mutual agreement between PolyU and our local service partners, as well as other relating issues. Flexibility towards uncertainty is highly encouraged.	Level	2
Subject Duration Semester 2 + Summer Term Teaching Staff Prof. Han Xiaorong, Dr Li Meng Target Students GUR, open for all Pre-requisites Nil Selection of students required? Student should write a 200-word self-introduction for submission to the system. Students who are fluent in Putonghua, with good communication skills and a strong sense of responsibility are preferred. Higher priority will be given to students with alents in music or art, and experience in volunteer work or social work. The maturity of the students will also be taken into account. Suitable candidates will be invited to attend group interview. https://www.polyu.edu.hk/cc/- Subject Synopsis Differing/202122sem2 cc25202 subject description.pdf?la=tc&hash=41755A B202B49495353C1452FBDFAF21 Service Project Students in small groups will work with a group of service targets who are culturally different from them. Direct interaction opportunities will be provided to students to experiene how to communicate with the service targets to reflect on and raise their awareness about their culture. Students will also organize cultural activities in the serving community or present the local culture to a wider community for promotion and cultural preservation. What will students do to serve? Depending on the pandemic situation, a 10-day service trip in summer 2024 or online service pan is subject to issues concerning pandemic situation, mutual agreement between PolyU and our local service partners, as well as other relating issues. Flexibility towards uncertainty is highly encouraged. What will students do to serve?	Class Quota	35
Subject Duration Prof. Han Xiaorong, Dr Li Meng Target Students GUR, open for all Pre-requisites Nil Selection of students required? Student should write a 200-word self-introduction for submission to the system. Students who are fluent in Putonghua, with good communication skills and a strong sense of responsibility are preferred. Higher priority will be given to students with talents in music or art, and experience in volunteer work or social work. The maturity of the students will also be taken into account. Suitable candidates will be invited to attend group interview. Subject Synopsis Students in small groups will work with a group of service targets who are culturally different from them. Direct interaction opportunities will be provided to students will also to service targets use on and raise their awareness about their culture. Students will also organize cultural activities in the service users to discover the uniqueness of their culture. Students will also organize cultural activities in the serving community or present the local culture to a wider community for promotion and cultural preservation. What will students do to serve? What will students do to serve? What will students do to serve? What will students do to serve? What will students do to serve? What will students do to serve? <t< th=""><th>Medium of Instruction</th><th>English and Putonghua</th></t<>	Medium of Instruction	English and Putonghua
Target Students GUR, open for all Pre-requisites Nil Selection of students required? Students should write a 200-word self-introduction for submission to the system. Students who are fluent in Putonghua, with good communication skills and a strong sense of responsibility are preferred. Higher priority will be given to students with talents in music or art, and experience in volunteer work or social work. The maturity of the students will also be taken into account. Suitable candidates will be invited to attend group interview. https://www.polyu.edu.hk/cc/. Subject Synopsis Different from them. Direct interaction opportunities will be provided to students to experience how to communicate with the service targets who are culturally different from them. Direct interaction opportunities will be provided to students to experience how to communicate with the service targets to reflect on and raise their awareness about their culture. Students will also organize cultural actilitators by helping the service users to discover the uniqueness of their awareness about their culture. Students will also organize cultural activities in the service targets to reflect on and raise their awareness about their culture. Students will also organize cultural activities on the service pare the local culture to a wider community for promotion and cultural preservation. What will students do to serve? Depending on the pandemic situation, a 10-day service trip in summer 2024 or online service will be conducted. What will students serve? Children or youth from minority groups in Mainland, china. Therefore, the ability to speak Putonghua is a requirement. What will students serve? Children or youth from	Subject Duration	Semester 2 + Summer Term
Where requisites Nil Pre-requisites Nil Selection of students required? Student should write a 200-word self-introduction for submission to the system. Students who are fluent in Putonghua, with good communication saccount. Suitable candidates will be invited to attend proportion will be given to students with talents in music or art, and experience in volunteer work or social work. The maturity of the students will also be taken into account. Suitable candidates will be invited to attend group interview. https://www.polvu.edu.hk/cc/- /media/department/cc/content/study/courses- offering/2021225em2 cc:3202.p subject. description.pdf?la=tc&hash=41755A B202849489535A1452FBDFAF21 Service Project Students in small groups will work with a group of service targets who are culturally different from them. Direct interaction opportunities will be provided to students to experience how to communicate with the service targets. Students will act as cultural facilitators by helping the service users to discover the uniqueness of their culture. Students will also organize cultural activities in the serving community or present the local culture to a wider community for promotion and cultural preservation. What will students do to serve? Depending on the pandemic situation, a 10-day service trip in summer 2024 or online service will be conducted. What will students serve? Children or youth from minority groups in Hong Kong, Mainland, or overseas Whom will students serve? Children or youth from minority groups in Hong Kong, Mainland, or overseas	Teaching Staff	Prof. Han Xiaorong, Dr Li Meng
Prerequisites Yes Selection of students required? Student should write a 200-word self-introduction for submission to the system. Students who are fluent in Putonghua, with good communication skills and a strong sense of responsibility are preferred. Higher priority will be given to students with talents in music or art, and experience in volunteer work or social work. The maturity of the students will also be taken into account. Suitable candidates will be invited to attend group interview. Subject Synopsis //media/department/cc/content/study/courses- offering/20122sem2_c2302p_subject_description.pdf?la=tc&hash=41755A B202B49489535A1452FBDFAF21 Service Project Students in small groups will work with a group of service targets who are culturally different from them. Direct interaction opportunities will be provided to students to experience how to communicate with the service targets to reflect on and raise their awareness about their culture. Students will also organize cultural activities in the service groups in Mainland China. Therefore, the ability to speak Putonghua is a requirement. What will students do to serve? Depending on the pandemic situation, a 10-day service trip in summer 2024 or online service plan is subject to issues concerning pandemic situation, mutual agreement between PolyU and our local service partners, as well as other relating issues. Flexibility towards uncertainty is highly encouraged. What will students serve? Children or youth from minority groups in Hong Kong, Mainland, or overseas	Target Students	GUR, open for all
Selection of students required? Student should write a 200-word self-introduction for submission to the system. Students who are fluent in Putonghua, with good communication skills and a strong sense of responsibility are preferred. Higher priority will be given to students with talents in music or art, and experience in volunteer work or social work. The maturity of the students will also be taken into account. Suitable candidates will be invited to attend group interview. Subject Synopsis https://www.polyu.edu.hk/cc/-//media/department/cc/content/study/courses-offering/202122sem2_cc2s02p_subject description.pdf?la=tc&hash=41755A B202B49499535A1452FBDFAF21 Service Project Students in small groups will work with a group of service targets who are culturally different from them. Direct interaction opportunities will be provided to students to experience how to communicate will be provided to students will act a cultural facilitators by helping the service targets to reflect on and raise their awareness about their culture. Students will also organize cultural activities in the serving community or preservation. What will students do to serve? The tentative plan is to serve the minority groups in Mainland China. Therefore, the ability to speak Putonghua is a requirement. Depending on the pandemic situation, a 10-day service trip in summer 2024 or online service plan is subject to issues concerning pandemic situation, mutual agreement between PolyU and our local service partners, as well as other relating issues. Flexibility towards uncertainty is highly encouraged. Students will students serve? Children or youth from minority groups in Hong Kong, Mainland, or overseas	Pre-requisites	Nil
Subject Synopsis /media/department/cc/content/study/courses- offering/202122sem2_cc2s02p_subject_description.pdf?la=tc&hash=41755A B202B49489535A1452FBDFAF21 Service Project Students in small groups will work with a group of service targets who are culturally different from them. Direct interaction opportunities will be provided to students to experience how to communicate with the service targets. Students will act as cultural facilitators by helping the service users to discover the uniqueness of their culture. Students will guide the service targets to reflect on and raise their awareness about their culture. Students will also organize cultural activities in the serving community or present the local culture to a wider community for promotion and cultural preservation. What will students do to serve? Depending on the pandemic situation, a 10-day service trip in summer 2024 or online service plan is subject to issues concerning pandemic situation, mutual agreement between PolyU and our local service partners, as well as other relating issues. Flexibility towards uncertainty is highly encouraged. Whom will students serve? Children or youth from minority groups in Hong Kong, Mainland, or overseas	Selection of students required?	Student should write a 200-word self-introduction for submission to the system. Students who are fluent in Putonghua, with good communication skills and a strong sense of responsibility are preferred. Higher priority will be given to students with talents in music or art, and experience in volunteer work or social work. The maturity of the students will also be taken into account. Suitable candidates will be invited to attend group interview.
Students in small groups will work with a group of service targets who are culturally different from them. Direct interaction opportunities will be provided to students to experience how to communicate with the service targets. Students will act as cultural facilitators by helping the service users to discover the uniqueness of their culture. Students will guide the service targets to reflect on and raise their awareness about their culture. Students will also organize cultural activities in the serving community or present the local culture to a wider community for promotion and cultural preservation.What will students do to serve?Depending on the pandemic situation, a 10-day service trip in summer 2024 or online service plan is subject to issues concerning pandemic situation, mutual agreement between PolyU and our local service partners, as well as other relating issues. Flexibility towards uncertainty is highly encouraged.Whom will students serve?Children or youth from minority groups in Hong Kong, Mainland, or overseasWhere will students serve?Children or youth from minority groups in Hong Kong, Mainland, or overseas	Subject Synopsis	<pre>/media/department/cc/content/study/courses- offering/202122sem2_cc2s02p_subject_description.pdf?la=tc&hash=41755A</pre>
what will students do to serve?Culturally different from them. Direct interaction opportunities will be provided to students to experience how to communicate with the service targets. Students will act as cultural facilitators by helping the service users to discover the uniqueness of their culture. Students will guide the service targets to reflect on and raise their awareness about their culture. Students will also organize cultural activities in the serving community or present the local culture to a wider community for promotion and cultural preservation.What will students do to serve?The tentative plan is to serve the minority groups in Mainland China. Therefore, the ability to speak Putonghua is a requirement.Depending on the pandemic situation, a 10-day service trip in summer 2024 or online service will be conducted.The service plan is subject to issues concerning pandemic situation, mutual agreement between PolyU and our local service partners, as well as other relating issues. Flexibility towards uncertainty is highly encouraged.Students should be fully aware of the fundamental difference between service trip and tourism trip. Therefore, students are required to be well prepared for local living condition, which might sometimes be challenging.Whom will students serve?Children or youth from minority groups in Hong Kong, Mainland, or overseas	Service Project
Where will students serve?	What will students do to serve?	 Students will act as cultural facilitators by helping the service users to discover the uniqueness of their culture. Students will guide the service targets to reflect on and raise their awareness about their culture. Students will also organize cultural activities in the serving community or present the local culture to a wider community for promotion and cultural preservation. The tentative plan is to serve the minority groups in Mainland China. Therefore, the ability to speak Putonghua is a requirement. Depending on the pandemic situation, a 10-day service trip in summer 2024 or online service will be conducted. The service plan is subject to issues concerning pandemic situation, mutual agreement between PolyU and our local service partners, as well as other relating issues. Flexibility towards uncertainty is highly encouraged. Students should be fully aware of the fundamental difference between service trip and tourism trip. Therefore, students are required to be well prepared for
Where will students serve? Hong Kong District:	Whom will students serve?	Children or youth from minority groups in Hong Kong, Mainland, or overseas
	Where will students serve?	Hong Kong District:

	Chinese mainland Province: Yunnan
	City: Lijiang
	Taiwan
	Macau
	Overseas Country:
	City:
When will students serve?	Tentatively, a service trip is planned after the examination period of Semester 2; or during Semester 2 and summer term for online service.
Fee payable by students	If there is a service trip, about 20% of the travelling costs to be paid, ~HK$1500 per student
Service Attributes (TBC)
Service Mode	 #OnlineService #HybridService #F2FService
Service Language	 #ServiceClient_Cantonese #ServiceClient_English #ServiceClient_Putonghua #ServiceClient_OtherNonEnglish
Service Location	 #Location_HK #Location_MainlandChina #Location_Taiwan #Location_Macau #Location_Overseas
Enquiry	Dr Li Meng (Email: mengvli@polyu.edu.hk; Tel: 34003839)