[Online]

We invites submissions presenting community engagement initiatives or service-learning (SL) projects organized by or for secondary and tertiary students from all over the world:

Community engagement or SL projects:

All curricular, co-curricular and extra-curricular projects completed in the past 5 years.

Products for serving the community:

Products which have been used or will be used to serve people in need or the community at large.

Virtual community engagement or SL proposal:

Proposals on innovative virtual community engagement or SL initiatives, especially for those aiming to address the problems caused by the Covid-19.

Note:

For Type 1 and 2, project in progress and product under development at the time of application will not be considered.

For Type 1 and 2, projects or products which are originally developed to fulfill certain kinds of requirement and/or awarded in any competitions will be considered. However, declaration must be made, and copyright release must be obtained from the copyright holder for publicizing in the event.
