Subject Title Healthy Lifestyle Challenges for Developing Communities Subject Title Healthy Lifestyle Challenges for Developing Communities Hosting Dept. School of Nursing Level 2 Class Quota 30 - 40 Medium of Instruction English Subject Duration Summer Term Teaching Staff Ms Phyllis Pang, Ms Ellen Ku Target Students GUR, open-for-all Pre-requisites Nil Belection of Students Basic health care knowledge, good communication skills and sense of responsibility are preferable. We will include a short quiz to be taken during the interview: 10 short questions are correct. Higher priority will be given to students who score high and with past experiences such as first aid courses, Scout/ Girl-guide/ Red Cross/ Cadet/ Brigade extra-curicular activities in secondary school, etc. The maturity of the student will also be taken into account. Subject Synopsis Objectives: Objectives: • To raise students' awareness of health issues in developing communities • To or rowide basic physical assessment and health education to the people in developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam) Service Project The service project will take place offshore during the semester break. In total, students will be expected to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a total of 5 days during Semester bre	Subject Code	SN2S03S
Hosting Dept. School of Nursing Level 2 Class Quota 30 - 40 Medium of Instruction English Subject Duration Summer Term Teaching Staff Ms Phyllis Pang, Ms Ellen Ku Target Students GUR, open-for-all Pre-requisites Nil Selection of Students Required? Basic health care knowledge, good communication skills and sense of responsibility are preferable. We will include a short quiz to be taken during the interview: 10 short questions are correct. Higher priority will be given to students who score high and vice the past experiences such as first aid course. Scould Girl, guide/ Red Cross/ Cadet/ Brigade extra-curricular activities in secondary school, etc. The maturity of the student will also be taken into account. Subject Synopsis Objectives: • To raise students' awareness of health issues in developing communities • To educate students' awareness of health issues in developing communities • To raise students' awareness of health issues in developing communities • To educate students' awareness of health issues in developing communities • To rointerview people and to observe their daily living behavior and patterns • To provide basic physical assessment and health education to the people in developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam) Service Project What will students do to serve? Mat will students do to serve? • The service project will take place offshore during the semester break. In total, students will be expected to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a total of 5 days during Semester break. • Day 12: Visits and interview to targeted families living in the slums. • Day 12: Visits and interview to targeted families living in the slums. • Day 12: Visits and interview to targeted families living in the slums. • Day 12: Visits and interview to targeted families living in the slums. • Day 12: Visits and interview to targeted families living in the slums.	Subject code	5125055
Level 2 Class Quota 30 - 40 Medium of Instruction English Subject Duration Summer Term Teaching Staff Ms Phyllis Pang, Ms Ellen Ku Target Students GUR, open-for-all Pre-requisites Nil Selection of Students Basic health care knowledge, good communication skills and sense of responsibility are preferable. We will include a short quiz to be taken during the interview: 10 short questions are correct. Higher priority will be given to students who score high and with past experiences such as first aid courses, Scout/ Girl-guide/ Red Cross/ Cadet/ Brigade extra-curricular activities in secondary school, etc. The maturity of the student will also be taken into account. Subject Synopsis Objectives: To raise students' awareness of health issues in developing communities To o roide basic physical assessment and health education to the people in developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam) Service Project What will students do to students do to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a total of 5 days during Semester break. In total, students will be expected to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a total of 5 days during Semester break. We envision that the service-learning project tentatively as follows: Day 1: Nivestigative wisit to neighboring place / markets, development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families <td>Subject Title</td> <td>Healthy Lifestyle Challenges for Developing Communities</td>	Subject Title	Healthy Lifestyle Challenges for Developing Communities
Level 2 Class Quota 30 - 40 Medium of Instruction English Subject Duration Summer Term Teaching Staff Ms Phyllis Pang, Ms Ellen Ku Target Students GUR, open-for-all Pre-requisites Nil Selection of Students Basic health care knowledge, good communication skills and sense of responsibility are preferable. We will include a short quiz to be taken during the interview: 10 short questions are correct. Higher priority will be given to students who score high and with past experiences such as first aid courses, Scout/ Girl-guide/ Red Cross/ Cadet/ Brigade extra-curricular activities in secondary school, etc. The maturity of the student will also be taken into account. Subject Synopsis Objectives: To raise students' awareness of health issues in developing communities To o roide basic physical assessment and health education to the people in developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam) Service Project What will students do to students do to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a total of 5 days during Semester break. In total, students will be expected to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a total of 5 days during Semester break. We envision that the service-learning project tentatively as follows: Day 1: Nivestigative wisit to neighboring place / markets, development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families <td>Hesting Dent</td> <td>School of Nursing</td>	Hesting Dent	School of Nursing
Class Quota 30 - 40 Medium of Instruction English Subject Duration Summer Term Teaching Staff Ms Phyllis Pang, Ms Ellen Ku Target Students GUR, open-for-all Pre-requisites Nil Selection of Students Basic health care knowledge, good communication skills and sense of responsibility are preferable. We will include a short quiz to be taken during the interview: 10 short questions are correct. Higher priority will be given to students who score high and with past experiences such as first aid courses, Scout/ Girl-guide/ Red Cross/ Cadet/ Brigade extra-curricular activities in secondary school, etc. The maturity of the student will also be taken into account. Subject Synopsis Objectives: To raise students' awareness of health issues in developing communities To educate students on challenges and needs in maintaining a healthy lifestyle To interview people and to observe their daily living behavior and patterns to raise physical assessment and health deucation to the people in developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam) Service Project What will students do to service project will take place offshore during the senester break. In total, students will be expected to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a total of 5 days during Serves to targeted families living in the slums. Day 1: Nivestigative visit to neighboring place / markets, development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for clie	Hosting Dept.	School of Nursing
Medium of Instruction English Subject Duration Summer Term Teaching Staff Ms Phyllis Pang, Ms Ellen Ku Target Students GUR, open-for-all Pre-requisites Nil Selection of Students Basic health care knowledge, good communication skills and sense of responsibility are preferable. We will include a short quiz to be taken during the interview: 10 short questions are correct. Higher priority will be given to students who score high and with past experiences such as first aid courses, Scout/ Girl-guide/ Red Cross/ Cadet/ Brigade extra-curricular activities in secondary school, etc. The maturity of the student will also be taken into account. Subject Synopsis Objectives: To raise students' awareness of health issues in developing communities To o ducate students on challenges and needs in maintaining a healthy lifestyle To interview people and to observe their daily living behavior and patterns To provide basic physical assessment and health education to the people in developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam) Service Project The service project will take place offshore during the semester break. In total, students will be expected to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a tail of 5 days during Semester break. We envision that the service-learning project tentatively as follows: Day 12: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums. Day 12: Visits and interviews to targeted fam	Level	2
Medium of Instruction English Subject Duration Summer Term Teaching Staff Ms Phyllis Pang, Ms Ellen Ku Target Students GUR, open-for-all Pre-requisites Nil Selection of Students Basic health care knowledge, good communication skills and sense of responsibility are preferable. We will include a short quiz to be taken during the interview: 10 short questions are correct. Higher priority will be given to students who score high and with past experiences such as first aid courses, Scout/ Girl-guide/ Red Cross/ Cadet/ Brigade extra-curricular activities in secondary school, etc. The maturity of the student will also be taken into account. Subject Synopsis Objectives: To raise students' awareness of health issues in developing communities To o ducate students on challenges and needs in maintaining a healthy lifestyle To interview people and to observe their daily living behavior and patterns To provide basic physical assessment and health education to the people in developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam) Service Project The service project will take place offshore during the semester break. In total, students will be expected to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a tail of 5 days during Semester break. We envision that the service-learning project tentatively as follows: Day 12: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums. Day 12: Visits and interviews to targeted fam
Subject Duration Summer Term Teaching Staff Ms Phyllis Pang, Ms Ellen Ku Target Students GUR, open-for-all Pre-requisites Nil Selection of Students Basic health care knowledge, good communication skills and sense of responsibility are preferable. We will include a short quiz to be taken during the interview: 10 short questions are correct. Higher priority will be given to students who score high and with past experiences such as first aid courses, Scout/ Girl-guide/ Red Cross/ Cadet/ Brigade extra-curricular activities in secondary school, etc. The maturity of the student will also be taken into account. Subject Synopsis Objectives: To raise students' awareness of health issues in developing communities To clucate students on challenges and needs in maintaining a healthy lifestyle To interview people and to observe their daily living behavior and patterns To provide basic physical assessment and health education to the people in developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam) Service Project What will students do to service project will take place offshore during the semester break. In total, students will be service-learning project tentatively as follows: Day 1+2: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums. Day 3: Investigative visit to neighboring place / markets; development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families	Class Quota	30 - 40
Teaching Staff Ms Phyllis Pang, Ms Ellen Ku Target Students GUR, open-for-all Pre-requisites Nil Selection of Students Basic health care knowledge, good communication skills and sense of responsibility are preferable. We will include a short quiz to be taken during the interview: 10 short questions relating to knowledge on basic health care; at least 80% of the questions are correct. Higher priority will be given to students who score high and with past experiences such as first aid courses, Scout/ Girl-guide/ Red Cross/ Cadet/ Brigade extra-curricular activities in secondary school, etc. The maturity of the student will also be taken into account. Subject Synopsis Objectives: • To raise students' awareness of health issues in developing communities • To raise students' awareness of health issues in developing communities • To raise students on challenges and needs in maintaining a healthy lifestyle • To interview people and to observe their daily living behavior and patterns • To provide basic physical assessment and health education to the people in developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam) Service Project What will students do to serve? • The service project will take place offshore during the semester break. In total, students will be expected to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a total of 5 days during Semester break. • Day 1+2: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums.	Medium of Instruction	English
Target Students GUR, open-for-all Pre-requisites Nil Selection of Students Basic health care knowledge, good communication skills and sense of responsibility are preferable. We will include a short quiz to be taken during the interview: 10 short questions are correct. Higher priority will be given to students who score high and with past experiences such as first aid courses, Scout/ Girl-guide/ Red Cross/ Cadet/ Brigade extra-curricular activities in secondary school, etc. The maturity of the student will also be taken into account. Subject Synopsis Objectives: • To raise students' awareness of health issues in developing communities • To educate students on challenges and needs in maintaining a healthy lifestyle • To interview people and to observe their daily living behavior and patterns • To provide basic physical assessment and health education to the people in developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam) Service Project What will students do to serve? What will students do to serve? Day 1+2: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums. • Day 3: Investigative visit to neighboring place / markets; development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families	Subject Duration	Summer Term
Pre-requisites Nil Selection of Students Basic health care knowledge, good communication skills and sense of responsibility are preferable. We will include a short quiz to be taken during the interview: 10 short questions are correct. Higher priority will be given to students who score high and with past experiences such as first aid courses, Scout/ Girl-guide/ Red Cross/ Cadet/ Brigade extra-curricular activities in secondary school, etc. The maturity of the student will also be taken into account. Subject Synopsis Objectives: • To raise students' awareness of health issues in developing communities • To educate students on challenges and needs in maintaining a healthy lifestyle • To interview people and to observe their daily living behavior and patterns • To provide basic physical assessment and health education to the people in developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam) Service Project What will students do to serve? • The service project will take place offshore during the semester break. In total, students will be expected to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a total of 5 days during Semester break. • Day 1+2: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums. • Day 3: Investigative visit to neighboring place / markets; development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families	Teaching Staff	Ms Phyllis Pang, Ms Ellen Ku
Selection of Students Required? We will include a short quiz to be taken during the interview: 10 short questions relating to knowledge on basic health care; at least 80% of the questions are correct. Higher priority will be given to students who score high and with past experiences such as first aid courses, Scout/ Girl-guide/ Red Cross/ Cadet/ Brigade extra-curricular activities in secondary school, etc. The maturity of the student will also be taken into account. Subject Synopsis Objectives: • To raise students' awareness of health issues in developing communities • To educate students on challenges and needs in maintaining a healthy lifestyle • To interview people and to observe their daily living behavior and patterns • To provide basic physical assessment and health education to the people in developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam) Service Project What will students do to serve? • Day 1+2: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums. • Day 1+2: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums. • Day 3: Investigative visit to neighboring place / markets; development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families	Target Students	GUR, open-for-all
Required? responsibility are preferable. We will include a short quiz to be taken during the interview: 10 short questions relating to knowledge on basic health care; at least 80% of the questions are correct. Higher priority will be given to students who score high and with past experiences such as first aid courses, Scout/ Girl-guide/ Red Cross/ Cadet/ Brigade extra-curricular activities in secondary school, etc. The maturity of the student will also be taken into account. Subject Synopsis Objectives: • To raise students' awareness of health issues in developing communities • To interview people and to observe their daily living behavior and patterns • To interview people and to observe their daily living behavior and patterns • To provide basic physical assessment and health education to the people in developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam) Service Project What will students do to serve? The service project will take place offshore during the semester break. In total, students will be expected to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a total of 5 days during Semester break. We envision that the service-learning project tentatively as follows: • Day 1+2: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums. • Day 3: Investigative visit to neighboring place / markets; development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families	Pre-requisites	Nil
Required? responsibility are preferable. We will include a short quiz to be taken during the interview: 10 short questions relating to knowledge on basic health care; at least 80% of the questions are correct. Higher priority will be given to students who score high and with past experiences such as first aid courses, Scout/ Girl-guide/ Red Cross/ Cadet/ Brigade extra-curricular activities in secondary school, etc. The maturity of the student will also be taken into account. Subject Synopsis Objectives: • To raise students' awareness of health issues in developing communities • To interview people and to observe their daily living behavior and patterns • To interview people and to observe their daily living behavior and patterns • To provide basic physical assessment and health education to the people in developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam) Service Project What will students do to serve? The service project will take place offshore during the semester break. In total, students will be expected to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a total of 5 days during Semester break. We envision that the service-learning project tentatively as follows: • Day 1+2: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums. • Day 3: Investigative visit to neighboring place / markets; development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families	Selection of Students	Basic health care knowledge, good communication skills and sense of
relating to knowledge on basic health care; at least 80% of the questions are correct. Higher priority will be given to students who score high and with past experiences such as first aid courses, Scout/ Girl-guide/ Red Cross/ Cadet/ Brigade extra-curricular activities in secondary school, etc. The maturity of the student will also be taken into account.Subject SynopsisObjectives: To raise students' awareness of health issues in developing communities To educate students on challenges and needs in maintaining a healthy lifestyle To interview people and to observe their daily living behavior and patterns To provide basic physical assessment and health education to the people in developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam) Service Project What will students do to serve? The service project will take place offshore during the semester break. In total, students will be expected to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a total of 5 days during Semester break. Day 1+2: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums. Day 3: Investigative visit to neighboring place / markets; development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families	Required?
relating to knowledge on basic health care; at least 80% of the questions are correct. Higher priority will be given to students who score high and with past experiences such as first aid courses, Scout/ Girl-guide/ Red Cross/ Cadet/ Brigade extra-curricular activities in secondary school, etc. The maturity of the student will also be taken into account.Subject SynopsisObjectives: To raise students' awareness of health issues in developing communities To educate students on challenges and needs in maintaining a healthy lifestyleTo interview people and to observe their daily living behavior and patternsTo provide basic physical assessment and health education to the people in developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam) Service ProjectWhat will students do to serve?Service ProjectWhat will students do to serve?Day 1+2: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums. Day 3: Investigative visit to neighboring place / markets; development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families correct. Higher priority will be given to students who score high and with past experiences such as first aid courses, Scout/ Girl-guide/ Red Cross/ Cadet/ Brigade extra-curricular activities in secondary school, etc. The maturity of the student will also be taken into account.Subject SynopsisObjectives: To raise students' awareness of health issues in developing communities To educate students on challenges and needs in maintaining a healthy lifestyleTo interview people and to observe their daily living behavior and patterns To provide basic physical assessment and health education to the people in developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam)Service ProjectWhat will students do to serve?The service project will take place offshore during the semester break. In total, students will be expected to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a total of 5 days during Semester break.We envision that the service-learning project tentatively as follows: Day 1+2: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums.Day 3: Investigative visit to neighboring place / markets; development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families experiences such as first aid courses, Scout/ Girl-guide/ Red Cross/ Cadet/ Brigade extra-curricular activities in secondary school, etc. The maturity of the student will also be taken into account.Subject SynopsisObjectives: To raise students' awareness of health issues in developing communities To educate students on challenges and needs in maintaining a healthy lifestyleTo interview people and to observe their daily living behavior and patterns To provide basic physical assessment and health education to the people in developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam) Service ProjectWhat will students do to serve?The service project will take place offshore during the semester break. In total, students will be expected to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a total of 5 days during Semester break. We envision that the service-learning project tentatively as follows:Day 1+2: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums.Day 3: Investigative visit to neighboring place / markets; development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families Brigade extra-curricular activities in secondary school, etc. The maturity of the student will also be taken into account. Subject Synopsis Objectives: To raise students' awareness of health issues in developing communities To educate students on challenges and needs in maintaining a healthy lifestyle To interview people and to observe their daily living behavior and patterns To provide basic physical assessment and health education to the people in developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam) Service Project What will students do to serve? The service project will take place offshore during the semester break. In total, students will be expected to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a total of 5 days during Semester break. We envision that the service-learning project tentatively as follows: Day 1+2: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums. Day 3: Investigative visit to neighboring place / markets; development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families student will also be taken into account.Subject SynopsisObjectives:• To raise students' awareness of health issues in developing communities• To educate students on challenges and needs in maintaining a healthy lifestyle• To interview people and to observe their daily living behavior and patterns• To provide basic physical assessment and health education to the people in developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam)Service ProjectWhat will students do to serve?The service project will take place offshore during the semester break. In total, students will be expected to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a total of 5 days during Semester break. We envision that the service-learning project tentatively as follows: • Day 1+2: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums.• Day 3: Investigative visit to neighboring place / markets; development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families		•
 To raise students' awareness of health issues in developing communities To educate students on challenges and needs in maintaining a healthy lifestyle To interview people and to observe their daily living behavior and patterns To provide basic physical assessment and health education to the people in developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam) Service Project What will students do to serve? The service project will take place offshore during the semester break. In total, students will be expected to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a total of 5 days during Semester break. We envision that the service-learning project tentatively as follows: Day 1+2: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums. Day 3: Investigative visit to neighboring place / markets; development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families
 To educate students on challenges and needs in maintaining a healthy lifestyle To interview people and to observe their daily living behavior and patterns To provide basic physical assessment and health education to the people in developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam) Service Project What will students do to serve? The service project will take place offshore during the semester break. In total, students will be expected to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a total of 5 days during Semester break. We envision that the service-learning project tentatively as follows: Day 1+2: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums. Day 3: Investigative visit to neighboring place / markets; development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families	Subject Synopsis	Objectives:
 To educate students on challenges and needs in maintaining a healthy lifestyle To interview people and to observe their daily living behavior and patterns To provide basic physical assessment and health education to the people in developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam) Service Project What will students do to serve? The service project will take place offshore during the semester break. In total, students will be expected to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a total of 5 days during Semester break. We envision that the service-learning project tentatively as follows: Day 1+2: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums. Day 3: Investigative visit to neighboring place / markets; development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families		To raise students' awareness of health issues in developing communities lifestyleTo interview people and to observe their daily living behavior and patternsTo provide basic physical assessment and health education to the people in developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam)Service ProjectWhat will students do to serve?The service project will take place offshore during the semester break. In total, students will be expected to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a total of 5 days during Semester break. We envision that the service-learning project tentatively as follows:Day 1+2: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums.Day 3: Investigative visit to neighboring place / markets; development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families
 To provide basic physical assessment and health education to the people in developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam) Service Project What will students do to serve? The service project will take place offshore during the semester break. In total, students will be expected to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a total of 5 days during Semester break. We envision that the service-learning project tentatively as follows: Day 1+2: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums. Day 3: Investigative visit to neighboring place / markets; development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families 		lifestyle developing communities (Cambodia/ Vietnam)Service ProjectWhat will students do to serve?The service project will take place offshore during the semester break. In total, students will be expected to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a total of 5 days during Semester break. We envision that the service-learning project tentatively as follows: Day 1+2: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums. Day 3: Investigative visit to neighboring place / markets; development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families
 What will students do to serve? The service project will take place offshore during the semester break. In total, students will be expected to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a total of 5 days during Semester break. We envision that the service-learning project tentatively as follows: Day 1+2: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums. Day 3: Investigative visit to neighboring place / markets; development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families students will be expected to spend 40 hours in direct contact with the people, to a total of 5 days during Semester break. We envision that the service-learning project tentatively as follows: Day 1+2: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums. Day 3: Investigative visit to neighboring place / markets; development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families 	Service Project to a total of 5 days during Semester break. We envision that the service-learning project tentatively as follows: Day 1+2: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums. Day 3: Investigative visit to neighboring place / markets; development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families 	What will students do to	The service project will take place offshore during the semester break. In total,
 Day 1+2: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums. Day 3: Investigative visit to neighboring place / markets; development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families 	serve?
 Day 3: Investigative visit to neighboring place / markets; development of proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families 		We envision that the service-learning project tentatively as follows:
proposal on healthy eating and lifestyle for client families		• Day 1+2: Visits and interviews to targeted families living in the slums.
 Day 1+5: Procentation of proposal to client families
■ Day 4+5. Presentation of proposal to cheft families		Day 4+5: Presentation of proposal to client families

Whom will students serve?	People / family who are living in developing communities – Cambodia/ Vietnam
Where will students serve?	Developing communities - Cambodia/ Vietnam
When will students serve?	Cambodia: 19 – 31 July 2016 (Tentative) Vietnam: 18 – 30 July 2016 (Tentative)
Fee payable by students	Students may be required to bear part or all of the costs for offshore project (Est. cost HK$1700 – 1800).
Enquiry	Cambodia - Ms Phyllis Pang : Phyllis.pang@polyu.edu.hk Vietnam - Ms Ellen Ku: Ellen.ku@polyu.edu.hk
Remarks	Students need to inform the corresponding teaching staff during the interview if the schedule of the service project clashes with your clinical placement/ special study pattern.