(This subject will offer in conjunction with the programme "One World Our World" from Service-Learning and Leadership Office.) Subject Title Living Environment for Low-income Communities in Developing Regions (To be changed) Hosting Department Department of Building Environment and Energy Engineering Level 3 Class Quota 30 Medium of Instruction English Subject Duration Summer Term Teaching Staff Dr. Mul Kwok Wai, Horace, Dr. Wong Ling Tim Target Students GUR for students from FENG, FCE, FAST & FHSS Pre-requisites Nil Selection of students required? Yes Subject Synopsis Concept and practice of service-learning; basic needs and indoor environmental quality (IEQ), ways of IEQ improvements; introduction to service sites, specific technical and skills to the project. Mttp://www.bse.polyu.edu.hk/programmes/SubjectCode/pdf/BSE3S02.pdf (To be changed) Service Project 1. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; What will students do to serve? 1. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; Service Project 1. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents; and 3. Carry out client survey	Subject Code	BSE3S02 (To be changed)
World" from Service-Learning and Leadership Office.) Subject Title Living Environment for Low-income Communities in Developing Regions (To be changed) Hosting Department Department of Building Environment and Energy Engineering Level 3 Class Quota 30 Medium of Instruction English Subject Duration Summer Term Teaching Staff Dr. Mui Kwok Wai, Horace, Dr. Wong Ling Tim Target Students GUR for students from FENG, FCE, FAST & FHSS Pre-requisites Nil Selection of students required? Yes Subject Synopsis Concept and practice of service-learning; basic needs and indoor environmental quality (IEQ), ways of IEQ improvements; introduction to service sites, specific technical and skills to the project. What will students do to serve? 1. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; Propose recommendations on improvement of living standard in low- income families, and 3. Carry out construction / renovation / development of engineering systems which improve the living quality in low-income regions. Examples of project topics include: Evaluation and improvement of the termal environment of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the visual environment of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvem		BSE3S02 (To be changed) be Changed) Hosting Department Department of Building Environment and Energy Engineering Level 3 Class Quota 30 Medium of Instruction English Subject Duration English Target Students GUR for students from FENG, FCE, FAST & FHSS Pre-requisites Nil Selection of students required? Yes Subject Synopsis Concept and practice of service-learning; basic needs and indoor environmental quality (IEQ), ways of IEQ improvements; introduction to service sites, specific technical and skills to the project. http://www.bse.polyu.edu.hk/programmes/SubjectCode/pdf/BSE3S02.pdf (To be changed) 1. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; Service Project 1. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; What will students do to serve? 1. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; 2. Propose recommendations on improvement of living standard in low- income families, and 3. Carry out construction / renovation / development of engineering systems which improve the living quality in low-income regions. Examples of project topics include: Evaluation and improvement of the thermal environment of subdivided flats Evaluation and im
Level 3 Class Quota 30 Medium of Instruction English Subject Duration Summer Term Taget Students GUR for students from FENG, FCE, FAST & FHSS Pre-requisites Nil Selection of students required? Yes Concept and practice of service-learning; basic needs and indoor environmental quality (IEQ), ways of IEQ improvements; introduction to service sites, specific technical and skills to the project. http://www.bse.polyu.edu.hk/programmes/SubjectCode/pdf/BSE3S02.pdf (To be changed) Service Project 1. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the Iow-income regions; What will students do to serve? 1. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the Iow-income regions; 2. Propose recommendations on improvement of living standard in Iow- income families, and 3. Carry out construction / renovation / development of engineering systems which improve the living quality in Iow-income regions. Examples of project topics include: Evaluation and improvement of the thermal environment of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the ventilation of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the ventilation of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the visual environment of subdivided flats	Subject Title
Class Quota 30 Medium of Instruction English Subject Duration Summer Term Teaching Staff Dr. Mui Kwok Wai, Horace, Dr. Wong Ling Tim Target Students GUR for students from FENG, FCE, FAST & FHSS Pre-requisites Nil Selection of students required? Yes Subject Synopsis Concept and practice of service-learning; basic needs and indoor environmental quality (IEQ), ways of IEQ improvements; introduction to service sites, specific technical and skills to the project. http://www.bse.polyu.edu.hk/programmes/SubjectCode/pdf/BSE3502.pdf Service Project 1. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; What will students do to serve? 1. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; 2. Propose recommendations on improvement of living standard in low-income families, and 3. Carry out construction / renovation / development of engineering systems which improve the living quality in low-income regions. Examples of project topics include: Evaluation and improvement of the thermal environment of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the ventilation of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the visual environment of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the visual environment of subdivided flats	Hosting Department	Department of Building Environment and Energy Engineering
Medium of Instruction English Subject Duration Summer Term Teaching Staff Dr. Mui Kwok Wai, Horace, Dr. Wong Ling Tim Target Students GUR for students from FENG, FCE, FAST & FHSS Pre-requisites Nil Selection of students required? Yes Subject Synopsis Concept and practice of service-learning; basic needs and indoor environmental quality (IEQ), ways of IEQ improvements; introduction to service sites, specific technical and skills to the project. http://www.bse.polyu.edu.hk/programmes/SubjectCode/pdf/BSE3S02.pdf (To be changed) Service Project 1. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; What will students do to serve? 1. Carry out construction / renovation / development of engineering systems which improve the living quality in low-income regions; Service Project 1. Carry out construction / renovation / development of engineering systems which improve the living quality in low-income regions; Subject Synopsis 1. Carry out construction / renovation / development of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the thermal environment of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the ventilation of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the visual environment of subdivided flats	Level	3
Subject Duration Summer Term Teaching Staff Dr. Mui Kwok Wai, Horace, Dr. Wong Ling Tim Target Students GUR for students from FENG, FCE, FAST & FHSS Pre-requisites Nil Selection of students required? Yes Subject Synopsis Concept and practice of service-learning; basic needs and indoor environmental quality (IEQ), ways of IEQ improvements; introduction to service sites, specific technical and skills to the project. http://www.bse.polyu.edu.hk/programmes/SubjectCode/pdf/BSE3S02.pdf (To be changed) (To be changed) Service Project 1. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; What will students do to serve? 1. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; 2. Propose recommendations on improvement of living standard in low- income families, and 3. Carry out construction / renovation / development of engineering systems which improve the living quality in low-income regions. Examples of project topics include: Evaluation and improvement of the thermal environment of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the ventilation of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the visual environment of subdivided flats	Class Quota	30
Teaching Staff Dr. Mui Kwok Wai, Horace, Dr. Wong Ling Tim Target Students GUR for students from FENG, FCE, FAST & FHSS Pre-requisites Nil Selection of students required? Yes Subject Synopsis Concept and practice of service-learning; basic needs and indoor environmental quality (IEQ), ways of IEQ improvements; introduction to service sites, specific technical and skills to the project. http://www.bse.polyu.edu.hk/programmes/SubjectCode/pdf/BSE3S02.pdf (To be changed) Service Project 1. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; What will students do to serve? 1. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; Service Project 1. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; Service Project 1. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; Service Project 1. Carry out construction / renovation / development of engineering systems which improve the living quality in low-income regions. Examples of project topics include: Evaluation and improvement of the thermal environment of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the ventilation of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the visual environment of subdivided flats	Medium of Instruction	English
Target Students GUR for students from FENG, FCE, FAST & FHSS Pre-requisites Nil Selection of students required? Yes Subject Synopsis Concept and practice of service-learning; basic needs and indoor environmental quality (IEQ), ways of IEQ improvements; introduction to service sites, specific technical and skills to the project. http://www.bse.polyu.edu.hk/programmes/SubjectCode/pdf/BSE3S02.pdf Service Project I. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; Service Project I. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; Service Project I. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; Service Service Project I. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; Service Project I. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; Service Se	Subject Duration	Summer Term
Pre-requisites Nil Selection of students required? Yes Subject Synopsis Concept and practice of service-learning; basic needs and indoor environmental quality (IEQ), ways of IEQ improvements; introduction to service sites, specific technical and skills to the project. http://www.bse.polyu.edu.hk/programmes/SubjectCode/pdf/BSE3S02.pdf (To be changed) (To be changed) Service Project 1. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; 2. Propose recommendations on improvement of living standard in low- income families, and 3. Carry out construction / renovation / development of engineering systems which improve the living quality in low-income regions. Examples of project topics include: Evaluation and improvement of the thermal environment of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the ventilation of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the ventilation of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the visual environment of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the visual environment of subdivided flats	Teaching Staff	Dr. Mui Kwok Wai, Horace, Dr. Wong Ling Tim
Selection of students required? Yes Subject Synopsis Concept and practice of service-learning; basic needs and indoor environmental quality (IEQ), ways of IEQ improvements; introduction to service sites, specific technical and skills to the project. http://www.bse.polyu.edu.hk/programmes/SubjectCode/pdf/BSE3S02.pdf (To be changed) To be changed) Service Project 1. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; 2. Propose recommendations on improvement of living standard in low-income families, and 3. Carry out construction / renovation / development of engineering systems which improve the living quality in low-income regions. Examples of project topics include: Evaluation and improvement of the thermal environment of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the ventilation of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the visual environment of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the visual environment of subdivided flats	Target Students	GUR for students from FENG, FCE, FAST & FHSS
Subject Synopsis Concept and practice of service-learning; basic needs and indoor environmental quality (IEQ), ways of IEQ improvements; introduction to service sites, specific technical and skills to the project. http://www.bse.polyu.edu.hk/programmes/SubjectCode/pdf/BSE3S02.pdf (To be changed) Service Project 1. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; What will students do to serve? 1. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; 2. Propose recommendations on improvement of living standard in low- income families, and 3. Carry out construction / renovation / development of engineering systems which improve the living quality in low-income regions. Examples of project topics include: Evaluation and improvement of the thermal environment of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the ventilation of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the indoor air quality of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the indoor air quality of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the visual environment of subdivided flats	Pre-requisites	Nil environmental quality (IEQ), ways of IEQ improvements; introduction to service sites, specific technical and skills to the project. http://www.bse.polyu.edu.hk/programmes/SubjectCode/pdf/BSE3S02.pdf (To be changed) Service Project What will students do to serve? 1. Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; 2. Propose recommendations on improvement of living standard in low-income families, and 3. Carry out construction / renovation / development of engineering systems which improve the living quality in low-income regions. Examples of project topics include: Evaluation and improvement of the thermal environment of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the indoor air quality of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the visual environment of subdivided flats	Selection of students required?	Yes
 Carry out client survey to identify the gap to basic needs for the residents in the low-income regions; Propose recommendations on improvement of living standard in low-income families, and Carry out construction / renovation / development of engineering systems which improve the living quality in low-income regions. Examples of project topics include: Evaluation and improvement of the thermal environment of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the ventilation of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the indoor air quality of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the visual environment of subdivided flats 	Subject Synopsis	environmental quality (IEQ), ways of IEQ improvements; introduction to service sites, specific technical and skills to the project. http://www.bse.polyu.edu.hk/programmes/SubjectCode/pdf/BSE3S02.pdf
residents in the low-income regions; 2. Propose recommendations on improvement of living standard in low- income families, and 3. Carry out construction / renovation / development of engineering systems which improve the living quality in low-income regions. Examples of project topics include: Evaluation and improvement of the thermal environment of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the ventilation of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the indoor air quality of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the visual environment of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the visual environment of subdivided flats	Service Project
	What will students do to serve?	 residents in the low-income regions; Propose recommendations on improvement of living standard in low-income families, and Carry out construction / renovation / development of engineering systems which improve the living quality in low-income regions. Examples of project topics include: Evaluation and improvement of the thermal environment of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the ventilation of subdivided flats Evaluation and improvement of the indoor air quality of subdivided flats
	Whom will students serve?	Refugees, Ethnic Minorities, Low-income families and/or individuals

\square	Hong Kong	District:
	Chinese mainland	Province:
		City:
	Taiwan
	Macau
	Overseas	Country:
		City:
The service delivery will be held from week 2 - 6 of Summer Term
Nil	Nil
Dr. WONG Ling Tim, beltw@polyu.edu.hk
Dr. MUI Kwok Wai, behorace@polyu.edu.hk
Ms. Artemis KUO, mlkuo@polyu.edu.hk
	The se Nil Dr. WC	 Chinese mainland Taiwan Macau Overseas The service delivery will be hele Nil Dr. WONG Ling Tim, beltw@pre Dr. MUI Kwok Wai, behorace@painleft	