Service Project
What will students do to serve?	The service project will take place in (a) The summer semester; (b) The whole period of staying in a developing country will be 12 days, of which about two thirds of the period will be in a selected site. (1) Pre-trip Planning and Preparation Students will be briefed with the background and situation of the sites, the needs and expectations of the local people, the range of possible and feasible services, by the course instructors, guest speakers etc.. Students will participate in the forums, workshops, and consolidation sessions, to work out for themselves the range of service works and the execution plan. (2) Empathetic Understanding of Poverty Students have to make repeated home visits, interviews, and interactions with local people, including villagers, farmers, elderly, school children, factory workers, housewives, to have concrete understanding of their conditions and concerns, to communicate and exchange at the human and personal level, and to respond in a way with empathy, care, and respect.

	(3) Physical works Students may like to be able to leave something behind after they have left. Such works include: simple construction, wall painting, installing solar energy lighting systems, rain water collection, repair works, and collection and distribution of useful materials. (4) Educational works Students are encouraged to make use of their own knowledge in their service-works. Examples include: learning activities in the primary school, English class, art and/or music tutorials, hygiene tutorials, the use of the first-aid kit. 5) Research works Each group has to engage in a research project. Past research projects include: health-care for the elderly; map of the village; water sources and safety; economic analysis of chicken farms; and globalization and factory workers. 6) Social services Each group of students has to select a target group to render their services. The following target groups have been identified and served by students in the past: poor families; elderly; housewives; farm workers; children; factory workers. The services include: elderly lunch, tailor-made gifts, social gathering, follow-up services of last year's works, performance, farewell party.
