

PROGRAMME CONTENTS (Bachelor of Science (Hons) in Mental Health Nursing, 53482)

Basic and Applied Sciences

- Human Physiology
- Clinical Microbiology
- Human Anatomy
- Pathophysiology and Pharmacology

Nursing Arts and Sciences

- Fundamentals of Mental Health Nursing
- Fundamentals of Nursing Therapeutics I & II
- Medical and Surgical Nursing I & II
- Communication Skills and Group Dynamics
- Mental Health Nursing Therapeutics I, II & III
- Mental Health Nursing Therapeutics in Community
- Mental Health Education and Promotion
- Psychotherapeutic Practice
- Psychotherapeutic Practice II
- Quality and Patient Safety in Healthcare
- Neurobiological Basis in Mental Health
- Fundamentals of Nursing Therapeutics in Chinese Medicine
- Public Health and Infection Control

Behavioural and Social Sciences

- Sociology of Health
- Introduction to Psychology
- Abnormal Psychology

Professional Development

- Ethical and Legal Aspects in Health Care
- Leadership Roles and Management Functions in Health Care
- Nursing Research
- Honours Project

Language

- Chinese Communication for Nursing

Field Experiential Learning

- Medical and Surgical Nursing
- Psychogeriatric Nursing
- Acute Psychiatric Nursing
- Learning Disability Nursing
- Substance Abuse Nursing
- Psychiatric Rehabilitation Nursing
- Child and Adolescent Mental Health Nursing
- Community Psychiatric Nursing and Mental Health Outreach Services

General University Requirements (GUR)

- Healthy Lifestyle

- Service-Learning
- Cluster-Area Requirements (CAR)
- Language and Communication Requirements (LCR)
- Artificial Intelligence and Data Analytics Requirement(AIDA)
- Innovation and Entrepreneurship Requirement(IE)
- Leadership Education and Development(LEAD)