Kick-off of the Lai King Project

Kick-off of Kwai Tsing Signature Project Scheme

Anything exciting happening at our off-campus Integrative Community Health Centre (IHC)? Yes, the Kwai Tsing Signature Project! The Chief Executive of Hong Kong announced in his 2013 Policy Address that HK$100 million would be earmarked for each district to initiate projects under the Signature Project Scheme, with the projects to address local needs or highlight the characteristics of their districts and to have a visible and lasting impact on the community. IHC, which is located in Lai King, is proud to be a partner in the Kwai Tsing Signature Project!

The School of Optometry (SO) is collaborating with Kwai Tsing District Office and Kwai Tsing Safe Community and Healthy City Association to provide 9,000 subsidized comprehensive eye examinations to Kwai Tsing District's elderly residents. Under the Scheme, all eligible Kwai Tsing residents aged 60 years or above can apply for an eye examination at IHC, with lot drawing of applications to be done by the District Office. Over the 3 years of the eye care project, our School will provide the eye examinations at our student clinic in IHC and prescribe spectacles for eligible patients, with the eye examinations and spectacles service subsidized by the Kwai Tsing District Council.

The kick-off ceremony for the project was held on 20 January this year at Lai King Community Hall. At the ceremony, the School was represented by our Head, Prof. To Chi-ho, and colleagues Dr. Andrew Lam, Mr. Peter Pang, Mr. Horace Wong and Ms. Rita Sum. Prof. To received the certificate of collaboration on behalf of the School, and Ms. Sum carried out a slit lamp examination on Dr. Ko Wing-man, Secretary for Food and Health of the Hong Kong Government, who sportingly volunteered as the demonstration's 'patient'. After the ceremony, Mr. Wong, Senior Resident Optometrist, delivered an eye talk to more than 100 attending elders.

In the project's first month, SO conducted 248 eye examinations and prescribed 109 pairs of spectacles, while 10% of the patients were also referred to ophthalmologists for further intervention. The Kwai Tsing Signature Project Scheme also includes subsidized ophthalmologist consultations, which can facilitate treatment of detected ocular diseases. The majority of the elderly patients we saw did not have a regular or comprehensive eye examination, so this project should definitely raise their awareness about ocular health. Just how impactful the project is already can be seen in our nearly 50% rate of the patients' having to be prescribed subsidized glasses to correct their vision.

However, ocular health assessment is just one of the components of the Kwai Tsing Signature Project. The multidisciplinary project also includes dental service by Yan Chai Hospital, flu vaccination, health promotion programmes, an outreaching service to residents with chronic diseases, and so on. Through these collaborations with different medical and health professionals, community health care in Kwai Tsing will be further enhanced!

World Sight Day 2014 Themed "Vision Rehabilitation: A Concerted Effort"

Every second Thursday of October each year is designated by the World Health Organization as "World Sight Day", which aims, through attention and concerted action around the world, to promote the importance of vision protection and eliminating preventable blindness. It is hoped that by the year 2020 all avoidable blindness could be eliminated.

To arouse awareness about public health and understanding of available services for the visually impaired in Hong Kong, 5 professional organizations jointly put on the 2014 World Sight Day on 9 October 2014 in the city. Besides our School, they were the Hong Kong Society for the Blind, Ebenezer School and Home for the Visually Impaired, Hong Kong Guide Dogs Association and the University of Hong Kong's Department of Mechanical Engineering. The 2014 World Sight Day let the public gain a deeper understanding of low vision and visual rehabilitation. Prof. Sophia Chan, JP, Hong Kong's Under Secretary for Food and Health, also showed her support for the event. A conference featuring a number of speakers from different sectors was on the theme of collaboration. In addition, there were exhibitions and showcases of various services and aids for the visually impaired. Attendees from the general public and the visually impaired commented that the conference was very informative and greatly deepened their understanding of visual rehabilitation.

Another Social Capital Builder Award for Integrative Community Health Centre

The Social Capital Builders (SCB) Award, which is supported by the Community Investment and Inclusion Fund of Hong Kong's Labour and Welfare Bureau, is bestowed on organizations and projects it commends for fostering the development of a harmonious society through mutual trust and help. This year, 151 enterprises were granted the Social Capital Builder Logo to recognize their status as pioneers in building social capital, of which our School's Integrative Community Health Centre (ICHC) in Lai King was one such recipient. Mr. Chow Yick-hay, a Kwai Tsing District Councillor, had nominated ICHC for the award.

The award's presentation ceremony took place on 9 December 2014 at the Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre. Prof. To Chi-ho, Head of the School, proudly accepted the award on behalf of ICHC.

For over 10 years, ICHC has been providing comprehensive eye examinations, diabetic retinopathy screening, and health talks to the local community in collaboration with Kwai Tsing Safe Community and Healthy City Association and Kwai Tsing District Office. In these next 3 years, ICHC is expected to provide comprehensive eye care service to some 9,000 elderly residents of the district. The Centre aims to give timely detection of sight-threatening conditions and also offers spectacle dispensing to those in need. Through these services at ICHC, the School can advocate the importance of regular eye examinations to the general public.

PolyU Education Info Day 2014

The Hong Kong Polytechnic University (PolyU) organized its Education Info Day 2014 on campus on 11 October 2014 to provide potential students and their parents with up-to-date information about its wide spectrum of sub-degree and undergraduate programmes. Our School held information seminars and guided tours for visitors so they could have a more thorough understanding of the School's undergraduate programme and the Optometry field and profession. During the seminars, potential students and parents alike showed eagerness to learn about the structure of SO's programme and career-related opportunities. In the guided tours, visitors had the opportunity to observe the daily operation of SO's Optometry Clinic and learn about the use of different equipment. Also, an exhibition booth was created to serve as an interactive platform enabling potential students and parents to meet and talk with academic staff and current students of the School. Many visitors who came to the booth showed great interest in learning more about Optometry, and our staff and students showed equal keenness in giving them detailed explanations to their queries and handing out informative leaflets. The teamwork and hard work of our staff and current students on Info Day will hopefully make potential students realize that Optometry is not just a worthy degree to pursue but also a profession that contributes to society.

School Wins "My Favorite Booth" Award at "PolyU Serves" Showcase

The School participated in the "PolyU Serves" Showcase between 21 and 23 November 2014 on campus. The School received many positive comments from visitors about its booth and was very honoured to win the "My Favorite Booth" Award after the showcase.

The "PolyU Serves" showcase's main purpose was to provide a platform for current students and other visitors to learn more about service learning, a mandatory component of the 4-year undergraduate curriculum at the University. Highlights of various service-learning projects were grouped under 4 main themes: "Education and Technology", "Environment Improvement and Sustainable Development", "Social Integration", and "Health and Wellness", which the School's booth came under. Some PolyU non-SO students who had enrolled on the service-learning course of the School and our students helped with the activities held at the booth, with the main one being 18 guided tours around the booth for different types of visitors. The target groups for the tours were donors, overseas visitors, partners, the general public, and PolyU staff, students and alumni.
