SYA Project Credit Transfer Webinar Series

SYA Project Credit Transfer Webinar Series

The SYA Project moderates a “SYA Project Credit Transfer Webinar Series” focusing on various topics on credit transfer. Every couple of weeks from April to June 2021, virtual presentations and panel discussions are arranged for stakeholders in the tertiary education sector. Prominent speakers from overseas and local organizations will be invited to share their experiences on specific topics on credit transfer.

The webinar series is expected to cultivate a discussion platform to learn from overseas successful experience and to discuss the strategic development of streamlining the credit transfer practices between sub-degree institutions and universities.

Programme

Three topics beginning from departmental practices to governmental policies on transfer and articulation will be covered both locally and internationally.

Speaker

Dr Eileen Strempele

Inaugural Dean, UCLA Herb Alpert School of Music

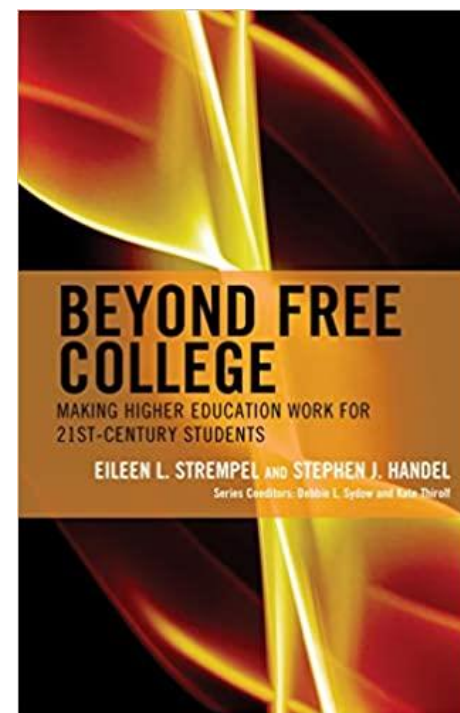

Dr Eileen Strempele is a nationally recognized transfer champion viewing excellent public education as one of the principal social issues. Strempele has served in various roles in nationwide organizations such as a board member of the National Institute for the Study of Transfer Students (NISTS) and a fellowship of the American Council on Education (ACE) to foster the transfer of community college students to four-year universities. Prior to joining UCLA, she also served as the Senior Vice Provost for Academic Affairs at the University of Cincinnati and in a variety of roles at Syracuse University over seventeen years. Co-authoring with Dr Stephen Handel, their third publication, focusing on higher education public policy entitled “Beyond Free College: Making Higher Education Work for 21st Century Students” was released in January. This work follows their co-edited two-volume set “Transfer and Transformation: Fostering Transfer Student Success”. An accomplished scholar and performer, her scholarly interests focus on the music of women composers, and her work that examine the political, social and musical contexts of the most influential female composers of our time.
