Mechanisms and strategies

- Review of articulated programmes' curriculum to make sure course matching with the curriculum of CUHK BNurs programme
  - Complete the course exemption form every year to ensure the course contents and contact hours
  - For newly requested programmes, they are required to submit all the course contents and the contents should be stipulated with the Nursing Council of Hong Kong (NCHK)'s requirements
- Clinical field visit to facilitate understanding of the students' clinical learning environment
- Admission talks for potential students every year
