SYA Project Credit Transfer Webinar Series

SYA Project Credit Transfer Webinar Series

The SYA Project moderates a ‘SYA Project Credit Transfer Webinar Series’ focusing on various topics on credit transfer. Every couple of weeks from April to June 2021, virtual presentations and panel discussions are arranged for stakeholders in the tertiary education sector. Prominent speakers from overseas and local organizations will be invited to share their experiences on specific topics on credit transfer.

The webinar series is expected to cultivate a discussion platform to learn from overseas successful experience and to discuss the strategic development of streamlining the credit transfer practices between sub-degree institutions and universities.

Programme

Three topics beginning from departmental practices to governmental policies on transfer and articulation will be covered both locally and internationally.
