CAE-HKAES Joint Summit on Innovation and Technology Industry in Hong Kong and the PRD

13-14 April 2015

The CAE-HKAES Joint Summit on Innovation and Technology Industry in Hong Kong and the Pearl River Delta (PRD) will be held in Hong Kong on 13-14 April 2015. The Summit is being jointly organized by the Chinese Academy of Engineering (CAE) and the Hong Kong Academy of Engineering Sciences (HKAES), and is locally hosted by The Hong Kong Polytechnic University (PolyU). This two-day event provides a valuable platform for exploring directions for the future development of industry in Hong Kong and the PRD through technology and innovations arising from a combination of expertise and strengths from Hong Kong and the PRD. The Summit will address a number of important issues, including policies, research funding, industrial R&D, technology transfer, and cooperation between Hong Kong and the PRD region. Policy makers from the Chinese mainland, Hong Kong, Taiwan and overseas will be invited to give presentations and to join panel discussions.

You are cordially invited to the Summit to review the development of innovation and technology industry in Hong Kong and the PRD, and to explore its future directions.
